and their words unto the ends of the world. †And like.

✠. Glo- ry be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Ho- ly Ghost. ‡Al-le-lu- ya.

Let this melody be sung on this Hymn from the Octave of Easter until the Ascension of the Lord at First Vespers and at Matins.

Tristes erant apostoli.

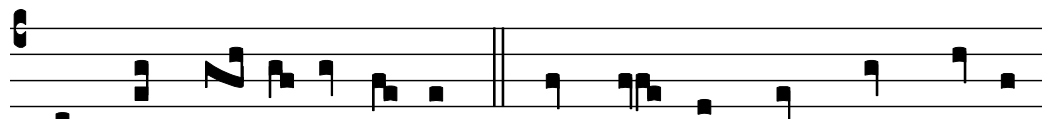

Hymn.
III.

H' Apos-tles' hearts were full of pain * For their dear

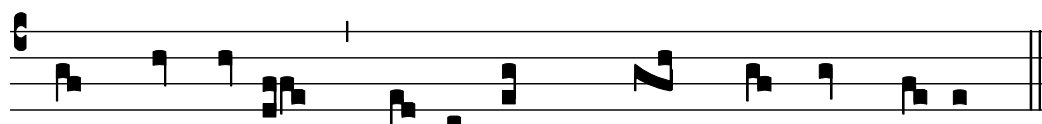

Lord so lately slain, By re-bel ser-vants doomed to die A death of cru- el a-go-ny. 2. We pray thee, King with glo-ry decked, In this our Pas-chal joy, pro-tect From all that death would fain effect, Thy ransomed flock, thine own e-lect.

3. To thee who, dead, a-gain dost live, All glo-ry, Lord, thy people give : All glo-ry, as is ev-er meet, To Father and to Pa-ra-clete. A-men.

Let the following melody be sung during the Octave of the Ascension of the Lord : and from then until Pentecost on this Hymn at j. Vespers and at Matins.

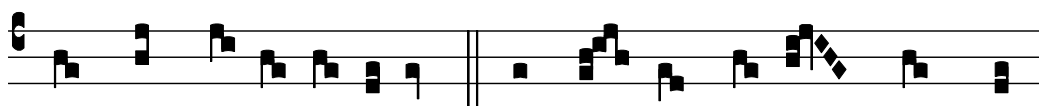

Hymn.
VIII.

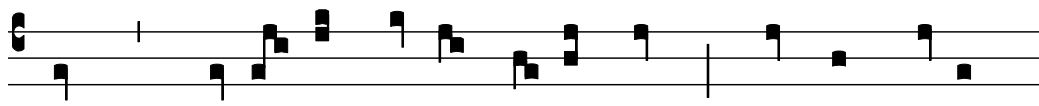

H' Apos-tles' hearts were full of pain * For their dear

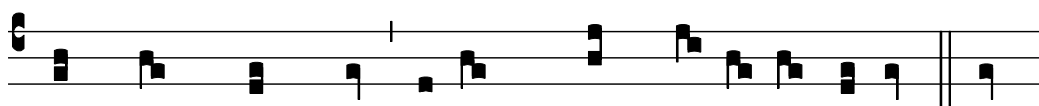

Lord so lately slain, By re-bel servants doomed to die A death of cru-el a-gony. 2. Be thou our joy and strong defence, Who art our fu-ture re-compense : So shall the light that springs from thee Be ours through all e-ter-ni-ty. 3. All glo-ry, Lord, to thee we pay, Ascend-ing o'er the stars to-day : All glo-ry, as is ev-er meet, To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

C Let it be understood that the Antiphon O Daughters of Jerusalem. and the R. O Daughters of Jerusalem. are sung in Eastertide whether on a Feast of one Martyr or many Martyrs, and whether on a Feast of one Confessor or many Confessors, always with these words, O Daughters of Jerusalem, come forth and behold the martyr. and not the martyrs. because the expression the martyr. pertaineth to the Passion of Christ.

Common of one Apostle or many Apostles in Eastertide.

The proper Prayer of the Feast if one be had : otherwise.

Prayer.

Hearken unto thy people, O Lord, who pray to thee under the patronage of thy holy Apostle N. (Apostles N. and N.), that they ever being defended by thy help, may be able to serve thee in godly quietness.

Through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. R. Amen.
