℣. O God, make speed. etc. 3*.

¶ On Sundays during Advent at Prime this Hymn is sung on this Melody.

Jam lucis orto sidere.

Hymn.
II.

Now that the daylight fills the sky, * We lift our hearts to God on high, That he, in all we do or say, Would keep us free from harm to-day : 2. Would guard our hearts and tongues from strife ; From anger's din would hide our life ;

From all ill sights would turn our eyes ; Would close our ears

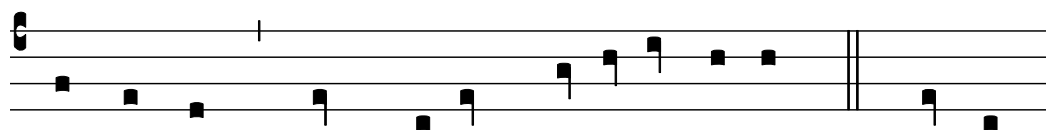

Prime.

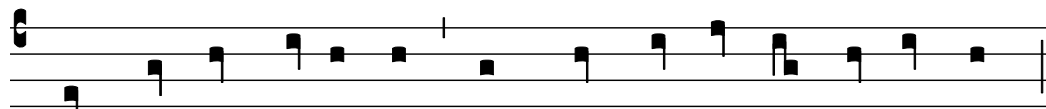

from va-ni-ties : 3. Would keep our inmost conscience pure ;

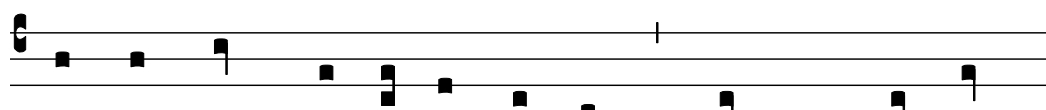

Our souls from folly would se-cure ; Would bid us check the pride of sense With due and ho-ly absti-nence. 4. So we,

when this new day is gone, And night in turn is draw-ing on,

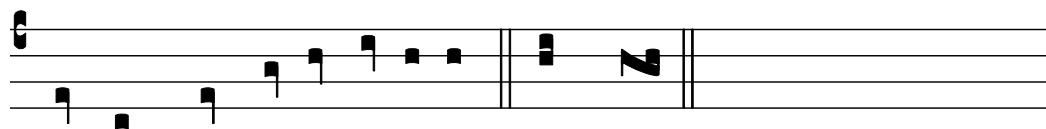

With conscience by the world unstained Shall praise his Name for victory gained. 5. All laud to God the Father be, All praise, e-ternal Son, to thee ; All glo-ry, as is ev-er meet,

To God the Ho-ly Pa-raclete. A- men.

☩ On all ferias through the year and on Feasts and on Vigils in which Nocturns are sung, outside of Eastertide, the following Melody is sung.

¶ The Creed of Saint Athanasius. Quicumque vult.

WHosoever wíll be sáved : before all things it is necessary that he hold thē Cātholíck Faith.

2. Which Faith except everyone do keep whole and ûndefíled : without doubt he shall perĩsh êverlástingly.

3. And the Cāthōlick Faĩth is this : That we worship one God in Trinity, and Trínĩtŷ in Únity ;

4. Neither confóundĩng the Pêrsons : nor dívdĩng the Súbstance.

5. For there is one Person of the Father, anôther óf the Son : and another ôf the Hóly Ghost.

6. But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghôst, is áll one : the Glory equal, the Majestŷ cōetérnal.

7. Such as the Father ĩs, sũch ís the Son : and sũch is the Hóly Ghost.

8. The Father uncreate, thē Sôn úncreate : and the Hóly Ghôst úncreate.

9. The Father incomprehensible, the Son incōprehénsible : and the Holy Ghost ĩncōmpréhensible.

10. The Father eternal, the Sôn etérnal : and the Holŷ Ghôst etérnal.

11. And yet they are not thrée etérnals : bũt ône etérnal.

12. As also there are not three incomprehensibles, nor thrée ûncreát-ed : but one uncreated, and one ĩncōprehénsible.

13. So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Sôn Almighty : and the Holŷ Ghôst Almighty.

14. And yet they are not thrée Almightyes : bũt ône Almighty.

15. So the Father is Gôd, the Sôn is God : and thē Hóly Ghôst is God.

16. And yet thêŷ ãre not thrée Gods : bũt ône God.

17. So likewise the Father is Lôrd, the Sôn Lord : and thē Hóly Ghôst Lord.

18. And yêť not thrée Lords : bũt ône Lord.

19. For like as we are compelled by the Chrĩstian vérity : to acknowledge every Person by himself tō bê both Gôd and Lord ;

20. So are we forbidden by the Catholĩck Relĩgion : to say, There be thrée Gods, or thrée Lords.

21. The Fâthêr is máde of none : neither creatêd, nôr begóttēn.

22. The Son is of the Fâthêr álonē : not made, nor creatêd, bũt begóttēn.

23. The Holy Ghost is of the Fâthêr and óf the Son : neither made, nor created, nor begóttēn, bũt procéeding.

24. So there is one Father, not three Fathers, ône Sôn, not thrée Sons : one Holy Ghôst, not thrée

Hóly Ghosts.

25. And in this Trinity none is afore, or áfter óther : none is greater, or l̃ss than anóther ;

26. But the whole three Persons are co-et̃rnāl toġether : ánd co-équal.

27. So that in all things, as ís a-fóresaid : the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity ís t̃ be wórshipped.

28. He therefore that wíll be sáved : must think th̃s of the Trínity.

29. Furthermore, it is necessary to everlásting salvátion : that he also believe rightly the Incarnation of our Lórd J́esus Christ.

30. For the right Faith is, that we b̃lĩve ánd confess : that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of G̃d, is G̃d and Man ;

31. God, of the Substance of the Father, beg̃tt̃n before the worlds : and Man, of the Substance of his M̃ther, b̃rn ín the world ;

32. Perfect G̃d, and p̃fect Man : of a reasonable soul and humán fl̃sh subsísting ;

33. Equal to the Father, as t̃uching his G̃dhead : and inferior to the Father, as t̃uching his Mánhood.

34. Who althóugh h̃ be G̃d and Man : yet he is ñt tw̃, but óne Christ ;

35. One ; not by conversion of the G̃dhead ínto flesh : but by taking of th̃ Mánhood ínto God ;

36. One altogether ; not by confú-sĩn of Súbstance : but by unít̃y of P̃rson.

37. For as the reasonable soul and fl̃sh is óne man : so God ánd Mán is óne Christ ;

38. Who suffered for óur salvátion : descended into hell, rose again th̃ th̃rd day fr̃m the dead.

39. He ascended into heaven, he sitteth on the right hand of the Father, G̃d Almíghty : from whence he shall come to j̃dge the quíck ánd the dead.

40. At whose coming all men will rise agáin wíth their b̃dies : and shall give acc̃unt for their ówn works.

41. And they that have done good shall go into lífe ēverlásting : and they that have done evil ínto ēverlásting fire.

42. This is the C̃tholick Faith : which except a man believe faithfully, he cānñt be sáved.

Glory be to the F̃th̃r. ℟.

¶ The preceding Preces are said in the above manner at Prime throughout the whole year, whether on Feasts or on ordinary days, whether double or simple, except from Maundy Thursday until the Octave Day of Easter, and except on All Souls' Day : in such a way that on all ferias throughout Advent and from Domine ne in ira. until Maundy Thursday, and from Deus omnium. until Advent, when the service is of the feria, immediately after the ℣. O Lord, let thy mercy. &c. [†] follows this Versicle.

℣. Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee.

R. Have mercy upon me and hear me.

Then follows Psalm 51. l. The whole Psalm is said with Gloria Patri. but without note.

Psalm 51. Miserere mei Deus. l.

HAve mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness :
according to the multitude of thy mercies do away mine offences.

2. Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness : and cleanse me from my sin.

3. For I acknowledge my faults :
and my sin is ever before me.

4. Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight : that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou art judged.

5. Behold, I was shapen in wickedness : and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

6. But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts : and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7. Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8. Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness : that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9. Turn thy face from my sins : and put out all my misdeeds.

10. Make me a clean heart, O God :
and renew a right spirit within me.

11. Cast me not away from thy presence : and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12. O give me the comfort of thy help again : and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

13. Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked : and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14. Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou that art the God of my health : and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.

15. Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord : and my mouth shall shew thy praise.

16. For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee : but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

17. The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit : a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

18. O be favourable and gracious unto Sion : build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Prime.

19. Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations :

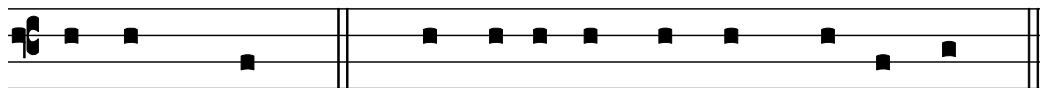

then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

Glory be to the Father. etc.

And then all is said kneeling from the beginning of the first Kyrie eleyson. until after the Prayer and Confiteor. and Misereatur. and Absolutionem. However, immediately after Psalm 51./l. the Officiant alone rises and sings as follows.

¶ On all Sundays and simple Feasts of Saints whether of Nine Lessons or Three and on ferias outside of Easter Week this Prayer is said.

¶ holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God : who hast brought us to the beginning of this day :
preserve us today by thy might : and no sin, neither run into any danger :

but that by thy governance all our deeds may be ordered to be done always according to thy righteousness.
Through. R. Amen.

R. The Lord be with you. R. And with thy spi-rit.

R. Let us bless the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.
