¶ Penitential Psalms.

On Wednesday at the beginning of Lent after Sext let the Clerks prostrate themselves in the Quire with the Bishop or Officiant before the Altar, and say the seven Penitential Psalms followed by this Antiphon Remember not. and with Gloria Patri. at the end of each Psalm.

Ant. Remember not.

¶ Against Wrath. Psalm 6. Domine ne in furore.

Q Lord, rebuke me not in thine indignation : neither chasten me in thy displeasure.

2. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak : O Lord, heal me, for my bones are vexed.

3. My soul also is sore troubled : but, Lord, how long wilt thou punish me ?

4. Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul : O save me for thy mercy's sake.

5. For in death no man remembereth thee : and who will give thee thanks in the pit ?

6. I am weary of my groaning ; every night wash I my bed : and water my couch with my tears.

7. My beauty is gone for very trouble : and worn away because of all mine enemies.

8. Away from me, all ye that work vanity : for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9. The Lord hath heard my petition : the Lord will receive my prayer.

10. All mine enemies shall be confounded, and sore vexed : they shall be turned back, and put to shame suddenly.

Glory be to the Father. etc.

¶ Against Pride. Psalm 32. Beati quorum. xxxj.

Blessed is he whose unrighteousness is forgiven : and whose sin is covered.

2. Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin : and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3. For while I held my tongue : my bones consumed away through my daily complaining.

4. For thy hand is heavy upon me day and night : and my moisture is like the drought in summer.

5. I will acknowledge my sin unto thee : and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.

6. I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord : and so thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.

7. For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou mayest be found :

but in the great water-floods they shall not come nigh him.

8. Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserve me from trouble : thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

9. I will inform thee, and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt go : and I will guide thee with mine eye.

10. Be ye not like to horse and mule, which have no understanding : whose mouths must be held with bit and bridle, lest they fall upon thee.

11. Great plagues remain for the ungodly : but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every side.

12. Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoice in the Lord : and be joyful, all ye that are true of heart.

Glory be to the Father. etc.

¶ Against Gluttony. Psalm 38. Domine ne in furore. xxxvij.

Ut me not to rebuke, O Lord, in thine anger : neither chasten me in thy heavy displeasure.

2. For thine arrows stick fast in me : and thy hand presseth me sore.

3. There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure : neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4. For my wickednesses are gone over my head : and are like a sore burden, too heavy for me to bear.

5. My wounds stink, and are corrupt : through my foolishness.

6. I am brought into so great trouble and misery : that I go mourning all the day long.

7. For my loins are filled with a sore disease : and there is no whole part in my body.

8. I am feeble, and sore smitten : I have roared for the very disquietness of my heart.

9. Lord, thou knowest all my desire : and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10. My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me : and the light of mine eyes is gone from me.

11. My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble : and my kinsmen stood afar off.

12. They also that sought after my life laid snares for me : and they that went about to do me evil talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13. As for me, I was like a deaf man, and heard not : and as one that is dumb, who doth not open his mouth.

14. I became even as a man that heareth not : and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15. For in thee, O Lord, have I put my trust : thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.

16. I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not triumph over me : for when my foot slipped, they rejoiced greatly against me.

17. And I truly am set in the plague : and my heaviness is ever in my sight.

18. For I will confess my wickedness : and be sorry for my sin.

19. But mine enemies live, and are mighty : and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20. They also that reward evil for good are against me : because I follow the thing that good is.

21. Forsake me not, O Lord my God : be not thou far from me.

22. Haste thee to help me : O Lord God of my salvation.

Glory be to the Father. ℟̄c.

HAve mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness : according to the multitude of thy mercies do away mine offences.

2. Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness : and cleanse me from my sin.

3. For I acknowledge my faults :

and my sin is ever before me.

4. Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight : that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou art judged.

5. Behold, I was shapen in wickedness : and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

6. But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts : and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7. Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8. Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness : that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9. Turn thy face from my sins : and put out all my misdeeds.

10. Make me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me.

11. Cast me not away from thy presence : and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12. O give me the comfort of thy help again : and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

13. Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked : and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14. Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou that art the God of my health : and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.

15. Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord : and my mouth shall shew thy praise.

16. For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee : but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

17. The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit : a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

18. O be favourable and gracious unto Sion : build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19. Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations : then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

Glory be to the Father. etc.

¶ Against Avarice. Psalm 102. Domine exaudi. c.

Hear my prayer, O Lord : and let my crying come unto thee.

2. Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble : incline thine ear unto me when I call ; O hear me, and that right soon.

3. For my days are consumed away like smoke : and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4. My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass : so that I forget to eat my bread.

5. For the voice of my groaning : my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

6. I am become like a pelican in the wilderness : and like an owl that is in the desert.

7. I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow : that sitteth alone upon the housetop.

8. Mine enemies revile me all the day long : and they that are mad upon me are sworn together against me.

9. For I have eaten ashes as it were bread : and mingled my drink with weeping.

10. And that because of thine indignation and wrath : for thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.

11. My days are gone like a shadow : and I am withered like grass.

12. But thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever : and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13. Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion : for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

14. And why ? thy servants think upon her stones : and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15. The nations shall fear thy Name, O Lord : and all the kings of the earth thy Majesty ;

16. When the Lord shall build up Sion : and when his glory shall appear ;

17. When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor destitute : and despiseth not their desire.

18. This shall be written for those that come after : and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

19. For he hath looked down from his sanctuary : out of the heaven did the Lord behold the earth ;

20. That he might hear the mournings of such as are in captivity : and deliver them that are appointed unto death ;

21. That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion : and his worship at Jerusalem ;

22. When the people are gathered together : and the kingdoms also, to serve the Lord.

23. He brought down my strength in my journey : and shortened my days.

24. But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age : as for thy years, they endure throughout all generations.

25. Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth : and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure : they all shall wax old as doth a garment ;

27. And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed : but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

28. The children of thy servants shall continue : and their seed shall stand fast in thy sight.

Glory be to the Father. Ec.

¶ Against Envy. Psalm 130. De profundis. cxxix.

Ut of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

2. O let thine ears consider well : the voice of my complaint.

3. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss : O Lord, who may abide it ?

4. For there is mercy with thee : therefore shalt thou be feared.

5. I look for the Lord ; my soul doth wait for him : in his word is my trust.

6. My soul fleeth unto the Lord : before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7. O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy : and with him is plenteous redemption.

8. And he shall redeem Israel : from all his sins.

Glory be to the Father. Ec.

¶ Against Discouragement. Psalm 143. Domine exaudi. cxlij.

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire : hearken unto me for thy truth and righteousness' sake.

2. And enter not into judgement with thy servant : for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3. For the enemy hath persecuted my soul ; he hath smitten my life down to the ground : he hath laid me in the darkness, as the men that have been long dead.

4. Therefore is my spirit vexed within me : and my heart within me is desolate.

5. Yet do I remember the time past ; I muse upon all thy works : yea, I exercise myself in the works of thy hands.

6. I stretch forth my hands unto thee : my soul gaspeth unto thee as a thirsty land.

7. Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint : hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8. O let me hear thy loving-kindness betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust : shew thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my soul unto thee.

9. Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies : for I flee unto thee to hide me.

10. Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God :

let thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousness.

11. Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Name's sake : and for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12. And of thy goodness slay mine enemies : and destroy all them that vex my soul ; for I am thy servant.

Glory be to the Father. etc.

Ne remeniscaris.

Antiphon. Remember not, O Lord, our sins, nor those of our forefathers ; neither take thou vengeance of our sins. Let nothing further be said when is is said in Quire. Spare, O Lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood ; be not angry with us for ever : and give not thine heritage into perdition, neither forget us for ever.

At the conclusion of the Psalms, while the Antiphon is being said, let the Officiant (the Bishop if he be present) arise and go to the Altar, or otherwise let his Vicar go to the Altar Step, and thereupon absolve the Clerks and the people with the Prayers that are indicated in the Ordinal or Processional or Missal at the Mass of this day : and then is made the Blessing of the Ashes.

The Great Litany.

¶ On all ferias during the whole of Lent the Litany is said as on the Monday up to the series of Martyrs, and from Be merciful. until the end. And whatever the Priest says of the Litany, the Choir repeats the same completely and accurately until the petition That thou wouldst grant us peace. Then the Choir responds We beseech thee to hear us. only, and likewise for each petition until Son of God. We beseech thee. Then the Choir responds with the same, and likewise for each petition until Kyrieleyson. Christeleyson. Kyrieleyson.

℣. That thy mercy and pi-ty would pro-tect us.

℞. We be-seech thee, hear us.

That it may please thee to govern and defend thy Church.

We beseech thee, hear us.

That it may please thee to preserve the Bishop of the Apostolic See, and all orders of the Church, in holy religion. We beseech thee.

That it may please thee to preserve our Bishops and Abbots : in holy religion. We beseech thee.

That it may please thee to grant peace and true concord as well as victory to our King and to our leaders. We beseech thee.

That it may please thee to preserve the congregations of all holy ones in thy holy service.

We beseech thee.

That it may please thee to preserve all Christian people redeemed by thy precious Blood. We beseech thee.

That thou wouldst render eternal blessing to all our benefactors.

We beseech thee.

That thou wouldst deliver our souls and the souls of our parents from eternal damnation.

We beseech thee.

That it may please thee to give and preserve the fruits of the earth.

We beseech thee.

That it may please thee to restore thine eye of mercy upon us.

We beseech thee.

That thou wouldst make the obedience of our service agreeable to reason. We beseech thee.

That thou wouldst raise our minds to heavenly desires.

We beseech thee.

That it would please thee to look upon and relieve the distress of the poor and the captives.

We beseech thee.

That thou wouldst grant eternal rest unto all the faithful departed.

We beseech thee.

That it would please thee to hear us.

We beseech thee.

The Great Litany.

peace. R. Amen. V. O Lord, hear my prayer. R. And let my cry come unto thee. V. The Lord be with you. R. And with thy spi-rit. V. Let us pray.

Prayer.

 God, whose property is always to have mercy and to forbear, receive our prayer : that those whom the chain of sin doth bind, the compassion of thy goodness may absolve. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

Prayer.

Almighty and everlasting God, who alone workest great mar-vels, send down upon thy servants the Bishops, and upon all congregations committed to them, the Spirit of thy saving grace : and that they may truly please thee : pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing.

Prayer.

God, who by the grace of the thy Holy Spirit dost pour the gifts of charity into the hearts of thy faithful people : grant unto thy servants and handmaidens, our brethren and sistren, for whom we entreat thy mercy, health of mind and of body : that they may love thee with their whole strength, and may accomplish with all delight those things which are pleasing unto thee.

Prayer.

God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed, give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give : that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and, with the fear of our enemies having being taken away, we may pass our time in quiteness under thy protection. .

Prayer.

Lord, we beseech thee, of thy clemency shew us thine ineffable mercy : that thou mayest both loose us from all our sins, and mercifully deliver us from the punishments which we deserve for them.

Prayer.

God, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful, grant unto the souls of all the faithful departed the remission of all their sins : that through pious supplications they may obtain the pardon which they have always desired.

Prayer.

ⓂF thy goodness, we beseech thee, O Lord, loose the bonds of all our transgressions, and through the intercession of the blessed and glorious ever-Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with all thy saints, protect us thy servants and all catholic people in all holiness : and all who are conjoined to us by consanguinity, by familiarity, or by confession and prayer, as well as all Christian people, do thou purge from vices and enlighten with virtues : bestow upon us peace and safety : banish our enemies, visible and invisible : drive away pestilence, give charity to our foes : and to all the faithful, living and deceased, grant life and eternal rest in the land of the living. Through the same Christ our Lord. R. Amen.
