Part 1.
Pages [1]–[70].

Invitatories through the Year.
The Psalter.
Sundays.
At Matins – at Lauds.

Edited by William Renwick.

HAMILTON ONTARIO.
THE GREGORIAN INSTITUTE OF CANADA.
MMXI.
A Psalter most appropriate for chanting the Divine Office: according to the Use and Rite of the Church of Salisbury together, with the order of the Psalms, with every ending and punctuation point clearly indicated: useful and convenient for all Priests.

If you would shew forth the highest praises to Christ:
Sing the holy songs which the Psalmist sang.

Psalmody leads the mind to ethereal realms:
And carries our hearts to their heavenly home.

· FORTUNE MAY TAKE AWAY RICHES ·
· BUT NOT THE SPIRIT ·
To be said before the Hours.

The Psalter of David
According to the Use of Salisbury.

In the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

To be said before the Hours.

Brief and private Prayer to be said before the Hours.

O Pen thou my mouth, O Lord, to bless thy holy Name; cleanse my heart also from all vain thoughts, that I may be worthy to be heard before the face of thy divine Majesty. Through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who livest and reignest with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer. Pater noster.

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Angelic Salutation. Ave Maria.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus Christ. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Apostles’ Creed. Credo in Deum.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord. Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholick Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The beginning of Matins.

The Officiant begins the service and sings this way.

Lord, open thou my lips.

The Choir responds this way.

R. And my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

V. O God, make speed. &c. 3*

Invitatory Psalm. 95. Venite. xciv.

Come, let us sing unto the Lord; let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and shew ourselves glad in him with psalms.

1 For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods. For the Lord repelleth not his people: for in his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.

3 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land. O come, let us worship, and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our Maker. For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

4 To-day if ye will hear his voice: Harden not your hearts: as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness. When your fathers tempted me: proved me, and saw my works.

5 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said: It is a people that do err in their hearts, for they have not known my ways. Unto whom I swear in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

On Sundays.

From the first Sunday after the Octave of the Epiphany until Lent.

Hymn. Primo dierum omnium. IV.

His day the first of days was made,* When God in light the world arrayed: Or when his Word a-rose a-gain, And conquering death, gave life to men. 2. Slumber and sloth drive far away; Earlier a-rise to greet the day; And ere its dawn in heav'n unfold The heart's de-sire to God be told:

[11]
3. Unto our prayer that he attend, His all-creating pow'r extend, And still re-new us, lest we miss Through earthly stain our heav'nly bliss. 4. That us, who here this day repair To keep th' Apostles' time of prayer, And hymn the quiet hours of morn, With blessed gifts he may a-dorn.

5. O Father of unclouded light, Keep us this day as in thy sight, In word and deed that we may be From every touch of evil free. 6. That this our body's mortal frame May know no sins, and fear no shame, Nor fire hereafter be the end Of passions which our bosoms rend. 7. For this, Redeemer, thee we pray That thou wilt wash our sins away, And of thy loving-kindness grant What’er of good our spirits want: 8. That exiles here awhile in flesh Some earnest may our souls refresh Of that pure life for which we long, Some foretaste of the heavenly song.

The following Doxology is sung in all Hymns of the same metre until the Purification except in the Hymn Maker of all things.
9. All honour, laud, and glory be, O Je-su, Virgin-born to thee; All glory as is ever meet, To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

After the Purification, however, is sung this Doxology.

9. O Father, that we ask be done, Through Je-sus Christ, thine only Son: Who, with the Ho-ly Ghost and thee, Doth live and reign eternal-ly. Amen.

On all Sundays from the first Sunday after Trinity until Advent when the service is of the Sunday, the following Hymn is sung.

Hymn. VI. Ather, we praise thee, * now the night is o-ver, Active and watchful, stand we all before thee; Singing we offer prayer and meditation: Thus we adore thee.
Sunday at Matins.

2. Monarch of all things, fit us for thy mansions; Banish our weakness, health and wholeness sending; Bring us to heaven, where thy saints united Joy without ending.

3. This be our portion, God for ever blessed, Father eternal, Son, and Holy Spirit, Whose is the glory which through all creation Ever resoundeth. Amen.
Here beginneth the Psalter after the Use of Sarum.

In the First Nocturn.

On all Sundays of Advent until the Nativity of the Lord, the Antiphons for the First Nocturn are as follows.

Non auferetur sceptrum.

1. Ant. I.v.

Ps. Blessed is the man.

Then follows Psalm 2. Why do the heathen. Ps. 3. Lord, how are they increased. and Ps. 6. O Lord, rebuke me not. These Psalms are sung under a single Tone with no intonation for the beginning of any succeeding Psalm, and under a single Gloria Patri.

And be it noted that whenever there are several Psalms under a single Gloria Patri. at Matins or at the Day-Hours, none of them should be re-intoned until the concluding Gloria Patri. is reached, which rule is observed throughout the whole year.
Sunday at Matins.

On all Sundays from the Octave of the Epiphany until Passion Sunday, when the service is of the Sunday, the Antiphon for the first Nocturn is as follows.

Servite Domino.

1. Ant.
III. iv.

Erve ye. Ps. Blessed is the man.

On all Sundays from Trinity Sunday until Advent, when the service is of the Sunday, the Antiphon for the first Nocturn is as follows.

Pro fidei meritis.

1. Ant.
I.v.

Saeward. Ps. Blessed is the man.

Psalm 1. Beatus vir qui non abit.

Lessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners: and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord: and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the waterside: that will bring forth his fruit in due season.

4 His leaf also shall not wither: and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper.

5 As for the ungodly, it is not so with them: but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgement: neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

7 But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: and the way of the ungodly shall perish.
Psalm 2. Quare fremuerunt gentes.

Why do the heathen so furiously rage together: and why do the people imagine a vain thing?

2. The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take counsel together: against the Lord, and against his Anointed.

3. Let us break their bonds asunder: and cast away their cords from us.

4. He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh them to scorn: the Lord shall have them in derision.

5. Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath: and vex them in his sore displeasure.

6. Yet have I set my King: upon my holy hill of Sion.

7. I will preach the law, whereof the Lord hath said unto me: Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

8. Desire of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance: and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9. Thou shalt bruise them with a rod of iron: and break them in pieces like a potter’s vessel.

10. Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be learned, ye that are judges of the earth.

11. Serve the Lord in fear: and rejoice unto him with reverence.

12. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and so ye perish from the right way: if his wrath be kindled, (yea but a little,) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Psalm 3. Domine quid multiplicati.

Lord, how are they increased that trouble me: many are they that rise against me.

2. Many one there be that say of my soul: There is no help for him in his God.

3. But thou, O Lord, art my defender: thou art my worship, and the lifter up of my head.

4. I did call upon the Lord with my voice: and he heard me out of his holy hill.

5. I laid me down and slept, and rose up again: for the Lord sustained me.

6. I will not be afraid for ten thousands of the people: that have set themselves against me round about.

7. Up, Lord, and help me, O my God: for thou smitest all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8. Salvation belongeth unto the Lord: and thy blessing is upon thy Sunday at Matins.

people.

Psalm 6. Domine ne in furore.

1 Lord, rebuke me not in thine indignation : neither chasten me in thy displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak : O Lord, heal me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul also is sore troubled : but, Lord, how long wilt thou punish me ?

4 Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul : O save me for thy mercy's sake.

5 For in death no man remembereth thee : and who will give thee thanks in the pit ?

6 I am weary of my groaning ; every night wash I my bed : and water my couch with my tears.

7 My beauty is gone for very trouble : and worn away because of all mine enemies.

8 Away from me, all ye that work vanity : for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition : the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be confounded, and sore vexed : they shall be turned back, and put to shame suddenly.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.

Lord my God, † in thee have I put my trust: save me from all then that persecute me, and deliver me;
   2 Lest he devour my soul, like a lion, and tear it in pieces: while there is none to help.
   3 O Lord my God, if I have done any such thing: or if there be any wickedness in my hands;
   4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that dealt friendly with me: yea, I have delivered him that without any cause is mine enemy;
   5 Then let mine enemy persecute my soul, and take me: yea, let him tread my life down upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust.
   6 Stand up, O Lord, in thy wrath, and lift up thyself, because of the indignation of mine enemies: arise up for me in the judgement that thou hast commanded.
   7 And so shall the congregation of the people come about thee: for their sakes therefore lift up thyself again.

Psalm 7. Domine Deus meus.

Ps. O Lord my God.

The Lord shall judge the people; give sentence with me, O Lord: according to my righteousness, and according to the innocency that is in me.

O let the wickedness of the ungodly come to an end: but guide thou the just.

For the righteous God: trieth the very hearts and reins.

My help cometh of God: who preserveth them that are true of heart.

God is a righteous Judge, strong, and patient: and God is provoked every day.

If a man will not turn, he will whet his sword: he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

He hath prepared for him the instruments of death: he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

Behold, he travaileth with mischief: he hath conceived sorrow, and brought forth ungodliness.

He hath graven and digged up a pit: and is fallen himself into the destruction that he made for other.

17 For his travail shall come upon his own head: and his wickedness shall fall on his own pate.

18 I will give thanks unto the Lord, according to his righteousness: and I will praise the Name of the Lord most High.

Psalms 8. Domine Dominus noster.

Lord our Governor, how excellent is thy Name in all the world: thou that hast set thy glory above the heavens!

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of thine enemies: that thou mightest still the enemy, and the avenger.

3 For I will consider thy heavens, even the work of thy fingers: the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained.

4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him: and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5 Thou madest him lower than the angels: to crown him with glory and worship.

6 Thou makest him to have dominion of the works of thy hands: and thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet.

7 All sheep and oxen: yea, and the beasts of the field.

8 The fowls of the air, and the fishes of the sea: and whatsoever walketh through the paths of the seas.

9 O Lord our Governor: how excellent is thy Name in all the world!

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will speak of all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: yea, my songs will I make of thy Name, O thou Most Highest.

3 While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause: thou art set in the throne that judgest right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, and destroyed the ungodly: thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, thy destructions are come to a perpetual end: even as the cities which thou hast destroyed:
their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the Lord shall endure for ever : he hath also prepared his seat for judgement.

8 For he shall judge the world in righteousness : and minister true judgement unto the people.

9 The Lord also will be a defence for the oppressed : even a refuge in due time of trouble.

10 And they that know thy Name will put their trust in thee : for thou, Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee.

11 O praise the Lord which dwelleth in Sion : shew the people of his doings.

12 For when he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them : and forgettest not the complaint of the poor.

13 Have mercy upon me, O Lord ; consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate me : thou that liftest me up from the gates of death.

14 That I may shew all thy praises within the ports of the daughter of Sion : I will rejoice in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made : in the same net which they hid privily, is their foot taken.

16 The Lord is known to execute judgement : the ungodly is trapped in the work of his own hands.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell : and all the people that forget God.

18 For the poor shall not alway be forgotten : the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever.

19 Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand : let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O Lord : that the heathen may know themselves to be but men.

21 Why standest thou so far off, O Lord : and hidest thy face in the needful time of trouble ?

22 The ungodly for his own lust doth persecute the poor : let them be taken in the crafty wiliness that they have imagined.

23 For the ungodly hath made boast of his own heart’s desire : and speaketh good of the covetous, whom God abhorreth.

24 The ungodly is so proud, that he careth not for God : neither is God in all his thoughts.

25 His ways are alway grievous : thy judgements are far above out of his sight, and therefore defieth he all his enemies.

26 For he hath said in his heart, Tush, I shall never be cast down : there shall no harm happen unto me.

Psalm 10. Ut quid Domine.
27. His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and fraud: under his tongue is ungodliness and vanity.
28. He sitteth lurking in the thievish corners of the streets: and privily in his lurking dens doth he murder the innocent; his eyes are set against the poor.
29. For he lieth waiting secretly, even as a lion lurketh he in his den: that he may ravish the poor.
30. He doth ravish the poor: when he getteth him into his net.
31. He falleth down, and humbleth himself: that the congregation of the poor may fall into the hands of his captains.
32. He hath said in his heart, Tush, God hath forgotten: he hideth away his face, and he will never see it.
33. Arise, O Lord God, and lift up thine hand: forget not the poor.
34. Wherefore should the wicked blaspheme God: while he doth say in his heart, Tush, thou God carest not for it.
35. Surely thou hast seen it: for thou beholdest ungodliness and wrong.
36. That thou mayest take the matter into thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; for thou art the helper of the friendless.
37. Break thou the power of the ungodly and malicious: search out his ungodliness, until thou find none.
38. The Lord is King for ever and ever: and the heathen are perished out of the land.
39. Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the poor: thou preparest their heart, and thine ear hearkeneth thereto;
40. To help the fatherless and poor unto their right: that the man of the earth be no more exalted against them.

Psalm 11. In Domino confido. x.

In the Lord put I my trust: how say ye then to my soul, that she should flee as a bird unto the hill?
2. For lo, the ungodly bend their bow, and make ready their arrows within the quiver: that they may privily shoot at them which are true of heart.
3. For the foundations will be cast down: and what hath the righteous done?
4. The Lord is in his holy temple: the Lord's seat is in heaven.
5. His eyes consider the poor: and his eyelids try the children of men.
6. The Lord alloweth the righteous:
but the ungodly, and him that delighteth in wickedness, doth his soul abhor.

7 Upon the ungodly he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, storm and tempest : this shall be their portion to drink.

8 For the righteous Lord loveth righteousness : his countenance will behold the thing that is just.

Glory be to the Father. &c.

Help me, Lord, for there is not one godly man left : for the faithful are minished from among the children of men.

t They talk of vanity every one with his neighbour : they do but flatter with their lips, and dissemble in their double heart.

3 The Lord shall root out all deceitful lips : and the tongue that speaketh proud things ;

4 Which have said, With our tongue will we prevail : we are they that ought to speak ; who is Lord over us ?

5 Now for the comfortless troubles' sake of the needy: and because of the deep sighing of the poor.

6 I will up, saith the Lord: and will help every one from him that swelleth against him, and will set him at rest.

7 The words of the Lord are pure words: even as the silver, which from the earth is tried, and purified seven times in the fire.

8 Thou shalt keep them, O Lord: thou shalt preserve him from this generation for ever.

9 The ungodly walk on every side: when they are exalted, the children of men are put to rebuke.

Ow long wilt thou forget me, O Lord, for ever: how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I seek counsel in my soul, and be so vexed in my heart: how long shall mine enemies triumph over me?

3 Consider, and hear me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death.

The fool hath said in his heart:

There is no God.

2 They are corrupt, and become abominable in their doings: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

3 The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men: to see if there were any that would understand, and seek after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

5 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues have they deceived: the poison of asps is under their lips.

6 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: their feet are swift to shed blood.

7 Destruction and unhappiness is in their ways, and the way of peace have they not known: there is no fear of God before their eyes.

10 As for you, ye have made a mock at the counsel of the poor : because he putteth his trút in the Lord.

11 Who shall give salvation unto Israel out of Sion ? When the Lord turneth the captivity of his people : then shall Jacob rejoice, and Íśraēl shall be glad.

Psalm 17. Exaudi Domine. xvi.

Ps. Hear the right, O Lord, consider my complaint: and hearken unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence: and let thine eyes look upon the thing that is equal.

3 Thou hast proved and visited mine heart in the night-season ; thou hast tried me, and shalt find no wickedness in me : for I am utterly purposed that my mouth shall not offend.

4 Because of men's works, that are done against the words of thy lips : I have kept me from the ways of the destroyer.

5 O hold thou up my goings in thy paths : that my footsteps slip not.

6 I have called upon thee, O God, for thou shalt hear me : incline thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words.

7 Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, thou that art the Saviour of them which put their trust in thee : from such as resist thy right hand.

8 Keep me as the apple of an eye : hide me under the shadow of thy wings,

9 From the ungodly that trouble me : mine enemies compass me round about to take away my soul.

10 They are inclosed in their own fat : and their mouth speaketh proud things.

11 They lie waiting in our way on every side : turning their eyes down to the ground ;

12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey : and as it were a lion's whelp, lurking in secret places.

13 Up, Lord, disappoint him, and cast him down : deliver my soul from the ungodly, which is a sword of thine.

14 From the men of thy hand, O Lord, from the men, I say, and from the evil world : which have their portion in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thy hid treasure.

15 They have children at their desire : and leave the rest of their substance for their babes.

16 But as for me, I will behold thy presence in righteousness : and when I awake up after thy likeness, I shall be satisfied with it.

Psalm 18. Diligam te Dómine. xvij.

I will love thee, O Lord, my strength; the Lord is my stony rock, and my defence: my Saviour, my God, and my might, in whom I will trust, my buckler, the horn also of my salvation, and my refuge.

2 I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy to be praised: so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3 The sorrows of death compassed me: and the overflowings of ungodliness made me afraid.

4 The pains of hell came about me: the snares of death overtook me.

5 In my trouble I will call upon the Lord: and complain unto my God.

6 So shall he hear my voice out of his holy temple: and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter even into his ears.

7 The earth trembled and quaked: the very foundations also of the hills shook, and were removed, because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out in his presence: and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coals were kindled at it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and it was dark under his feet.

10 He rode upon the Cherubins, and did fly: he came flying upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place: his pavilion round about him with dark water, and thick clouds to cover him.
12 At the brightness of his presence his clouds removed: hælstones, and coals of fire.

13 The Lord also thundered out of heaven, and the Highest gave his thunder: hælstones, and coals of fire.

14 He sent out his arrows, and scattered them: he cast forth lightnings, and destroyed them.

15 The springs of waters were seen, and the foundations of the round world were discovered, at thy chiding, O Lord: at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

16 He shall send down from on high to fetch me: and shall take me out of many waters.

17 He shall deliver me from my strongest enemy, and from them which hate me: for they are too mighty for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my trouble: but the Lord was my upholder.

19 He brought me forth also into a place of liberty: he brought me forth, even because he had a favour unto me.

20 The Lord shall reward me after my righteous dealing: according to the cleanness of my hands shall he recompense me.

21 Because I have kept the ways of the Lord: and have not forsaken my God, as the wicked doth.

22 For I have an eye unto all his laws: and will not cast out his commandments from me.

23 I was also uncorrupt before him: and eschewed mine own wickedness.

24 Therefore the Lord rewarded me after my righteous dealing: and according unto the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.

25 With the holy thou shalt be holy: and with a perfect man thou shalt be perfect.

26 With the clean thou shalt be clean: and with the froward thou shalt learn frowardness.

27 For thou shalt save the people that are in adversity: and shalt bring down the high looks of the proud.

28 Thou also shalt light my candle: the Lord my God shall make my darkness to be light.

29 For in thee I shall discomfit an host of men: and with the help of my God I shall leap over the wall.

30 The way of God is an undefiled way: the word of the Lord also is tried in the fire: he is the defender of all them that put their trust in him.

31 For who is God, but the Lord: or who hath any strength, except our God?

32 It is God, that girdeth me with strength of war: and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like hárts’ feet: and setteth me up on high.

34 He teacheth mine hands to fight: and mine arms shall bend even a bow of steel.

35 Thou hast given me the defence of thy salvation: thy right hand also shall hold me up, and thy loving correction shall make me great.

36 Thou shalt make room enough under me for to go: that my footstêps shall not slide.

37 I will follow upon mine enemies, and overtake them: neither will I turn again till I have destroyed them.

38 I will smite them, that they shall not be able to stand: but fall under my feet.

39 Thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou shalt throw down mine enemies under me.

40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turn their backs upon me: and I shall destroy them that hate me.

41 They shall cry, but there shall be none to help them: yea, even unto the Lord they shall cry, but he shall not hear them.

42 I will beat them as small as the dust before the wind: I will cast them out as the clay in the streets.

43 Thou shalt deliver me from the strivings of the people: and thou shalt make me the head of the heathen.

44 A people whom I have not known: shall serve me.

45 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: but the strange children shall dissemble with me.

46 The strange children shall fail: and be afraid out of their prisons.

47 The Lord liveth, and blessed be my strong helper: and praised be the God of my salvation.

48 Even the God that seeth that I be avenged: and subdueth the people unto me.

49 It is he that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries: thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

50 For this cause will I give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles: and sing praises unto thy Name.

51 Great prosperity giveth he unto his King: and sheweth loving-kindness unto David his Anointed, and unto his seed for evermore.

2 There is neither speech nor language: but their voices are heard among them.

3 Their sound is gone out into all lands: and their words into the ends of the world.

4 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun: which cometh forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a giant to run his course.

5 It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heaven, and runneth about unto the end of it again: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

6 The law of the Lord is an undefiled law, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

7 The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover, by them is thy servant taught: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how oft he offendeth: O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

13 Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me: so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great offence.

The following Antiphons are always sung at Lauds on Sundays when a new Lection is begun with Full Service: and when the last Sunday service is observed before Septuagesima and before Advent. However, when any Feast of ix. Lessons falls on a Sunday in which the beginning of a Lection would be celebrated, then on the Sunday immediately following, the Psalms are sung under this single first Antiphon The Lord is King, unless it be the final Sunday before Septuagesima or before Advent, in which case all the Antiphons are sung. However on the intermediate Sundays only the Antiphon The Lord is King, is sung.

But from their dark ways hie them home. 4. Th' encouraged sail-or's fears are o'er; The foaming bil-lows rage no more:

Lo! e'en the ve-ry Church's Rock Melts at the crowing of the cock. 5. O let us then all ardent rise; The cock re-bukes our slumbering eyes, Bestirs who still in sleep would lie, And shames who would their Lord de-ny. 6. New hope his clari-on note awakes, Sickness the feeble frame forsakes, The robber sheathes his lawless sword, Faith to the fal-len is restored.

Sunday at Lauds.

7. Look on us, Je-su, when we fall, And with thy look our souls re-call: If thou but look, our sins are gone, And with due tears our pardon won.

8. Shed through our hearts thy piercing ray, Our souls' dull slumber drive away: Thy name be first on every tongue, To thee our earliest praises sung.

Until the Purification this Doxology is sung.

9. All honour, laud, and glory be, O Je-su, Virgin-born, to thee; All glory, as is ever meet, To Father and to Pa-raclete. A-men.
However after the Purification the following Doxology is sung.

9. All laud to God the Father be, All praise, E-ternal Son to thee; All glo-ry as is ev-er meet, To God the Ho-ly Pa-raclete. A- men.

V. The Lord is King. R. He hath put on glorious apparel, alleluia. Let the response be made privately.

This Versicle together with the preceding Chapter is said at Lauds on all Sundays until Septuagesima and from the first Sunday after Trinity until Advent when the service is of the Sunday.

But from Septuagesima until Quadragesima this Versicle is said.
V. Lord, thou hast been our refuge. R. From one generation to another.

On Sundays from Trinity until Advent the following Hymn is sung at Lauds when the service is of the Sunday.

Ecce jam noctis.

O! the dim sha-dows * of the night are wa-ning;

Glimmer-ing brightly, dawn of day re-turneth; Fervent in spirit, to the mighty Father Pray devoutly. 2. So shall our Ma-ker, of his great compassion, Banish all sickness, kindly health bestowing; And may he grant us, of a Father's goodness, Mansions in heaven. 3. This he vouchsafe us,
God for ev-er blessed, Father E-tternal, Son, and Ho-ly
Spi-rit, Whose is the glo-ry, which through all cre-ation
Ever re-soundeth. A-men.

V. The Lord is King. R. He hath put on glorious apparel, alleluja. Let the response be made privately.

The proper Antiphon of the Sunday or Feast is intoned.

Lessed be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited, and redeemed his people;
2 And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us: in the house of his servant David;
3 As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets: which have been since the world began;
4 That we should be saved from our enemies: and from the hand of all that hate us;
5 To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers: and to remember his holy covenant;
6 To perform the oath which he swore to our forefather Abraham: that he would give us;
7 That we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies: might serve him without fear;
8 In holiness and righteousness before him: all the days of our life.
9 And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;
10 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people: for the remission of their sins;
11 Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us.
12 To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father. &c.

The proper Antiphon of the Sunday or Feast is re-intoned and sung through.

If the Officiant be in Holy Orders:

V.  The Lord be with you.
R.  And with thy spirit.
V.  Let us pray.

The Prayer of the Sunday or Feast is said.

If the Officiant be in Holy Orders:

V.  The Lord be with you.
R.  And with thy spirit.
V.  Let us bless the Lord.  R.  Thanks be to God.

Otherwise:

V.  O Lord, hear my prayer.
R.  And let my cry come unto thee.

Sunday at Lauds.

Here shall follow any Memorials which are to be said (see pp. [66]. ff.), after which is repeated the \( V \). The Lord be with you. &c. or the \( V \). O Lord hear my prayer. &c. followed by the \( V \). Let us bless the Lord. &c.

For the Peace of the Church.

The following is said, without note and all kneeling, daily from the Sunday after the Octave of the Epiphany until Wednesday in Holy Week, and from the Sunday after the Octave of Corpus Christi until but not including the Vigil of the Nativity of the Lord; except on Double Feasts, during Octaves when the Choir is ruled, and on All Souls’ Day.

Psalm 123. Ad te levavi oculos meos. cxvii.

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes: *
O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress: * even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercy upon us. 3 Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us: * for we are utterly despised. 4 Our soul is filled with the scornful reproof of the wealthy: * and with the despitefulness of the proud. Glory be to the Father. &c.

\( V \). Kyrie eleison.
\( R \). Christe eleison.
\( V \). Kyrie eleison.
\( V \). Lord, have mercy.
\( R \). Christ, have mercy.
\( V \). Lord, have mercy.

\( V \). Our Father. privately until And lead us not into temptation.
\( R \). But deliver us from evil.
\( V \). O Lord, arise, help us.
\( R \). And deliver us for thy Name’s sake.
\( V \). Turn us again, O Lord God of Hosts.
\( R \). Shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.
\( V \). Hear my prayer, O Lord.
\( R \). And let my cry come unto thee.
Sunday at Lauds.

If the Officiant be in Holy Orders.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Prayer.

Lord, we beseech thee favourably to receive the prayers of thy Church: that she, being delivered from all adversities and errors, may safely serve thee in freedom, and grant us thy peace in all our days. Through Christ our Lord. R: Amen.

V. Let us pray.

Prayer.

God, who didst will that thy Word should take flesh in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and at the message of an Angel: grant that we, thy suppliants, who believe her to be in very deed the Mother of God, may be aided by her intercessions with thee. Through the same our Lord Jesus Christ. R. Amen.

From the Octave of Saint Stephen until the Purification.

From the Octave of St. Stephen until the Purification a Memorial of St. Mary is made daily no matter what service is observed both at Vespers and at Lauds except on the Vigil of the Epiphany and on the Day of the Epiphany itself.
