1. Ant. I.iv.

Hat I offend not. Ps. I said, I will take heed.

Psalm 39. Dixi Custodiam. xxxviiij.

said, I will take heed to my ways: that I of-fend not in my tongue.

2 I will keep my mouth as it were with a bridle: while the un-god-ly is in my sight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea, even from good words; but it was pain and grief to me.

[276]
4 My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus musing the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue;

5 Lord, let me know mine end, and the number of my days: that I may be certified how long I have to live.

6 Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a span long: and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee; and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

7 For man walketh in a vain shadow, and diqiiet-eth himself in vain: he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

8 And now, Lord, what is my hope: truly my hope is even in thee.

9 Deliver me from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke unto the foolish.

10 I became dumb, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.

11 Take thy plague away from me: I am even consumed by the means of thy heavy hand.

12 When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment: every man therefore is but vanity.

13 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my tears.

14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as all my fathers were.

15 O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength: before I go hence, and be no more seen.

[277]
Tuesday.

_Psalm 40. Expectans expectavi. xxxix._

I waited patiently for the Lord: and he inclined unto me, and heard my calling.

2 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the mire and clay: and set my feet upon the rock, and ordered my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth: even a thanksgiving unto our God.

4 Many shall see it, and fear: and shall put their trust in the Lord.

5 Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lord: and turned not unto the proud, and to such as go about with lies.

6 O Lord my God, great are the wondrous works which thou hast done, like as be also thy thoughts which are to usward: and yet there is no man that ordereth them unto thee.

7 If I should declare them, and speak of them: they should be more than I am able to express.

8 Sacrifice, and meat-offering, thou wouldest not: but mine ears hast thou opened.

9 Burnt-offerings, and sacrifice for sin, hast thou not required: then said I, Lo, I come.

10 In the volume of the book it is written of me, that I should fulfil thy will, O my God: I am content to do it; yea, thy law is within my heart.

11 I have declared thy righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I will not refrain my lips, O Lord, and that thou knowest.

12 I have not hid thy righteousness with in my heart: my talk hath been of thy truth, and of thy salvation.

[278]
Tuesday.

13 I have not kept back thy loving mercy and truth: from the great congregation.

14 Withdraw not thou thy mercy from me, O Lord: let thy loving-kindness and thy truth alway preserve me.

15 For innumerable troubles are come about me; my sins have taken such hold upon me that I am not able to look up: yea, they are more in number than the hairs of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

16 O Lord, let it be thy pleasure to deliver me: make haste, O Lord, to help me.

17 Let them be ashamed, and confounded together, that seek after my soul to destroy it: let them be driven backward, and put to rebuke, that wish me evil.

18 Let them be desolate, and rewarded with shame: that say unto me, Fie upon thee, fie upon thee.

19 Let all those that seek thee be joyful and glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say alway, The Lord be praised.

20 As for me, I am poor and needy: but the Lord careth for me.

21 Thou art my helper and redeemer: make no long tarrying, O my God.

Glory be to the Father. &c.

Ant. Hat I offend not in my tongue.
Lessed is he that considereth the poor and needy: the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trouble.

2 The Lord preserve him, and keep him alive, that he may be blessed up-on earth: and deliver not thou him into the will of his enemies.

3 The Lord comfort him, when he lieth sick up-on his bed: make thou all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, Lord, be mer-ciful un-to me: heal my soul, for I have sin-ned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me: When shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh va-nity: and his heart conceiveth false-hood within himself, and when he com-eth forth he telleth it.

7 All mine enemies whisper to-ge-ther a-gainst me: even against me do they ima-gine this evil.

8 Let the sentence of guiltiness pro-ceed a-gainst him: and now that he lieth, he shall rise up no more.

9 Yea, even mine own familiar friend, whom I trusted: who did also eat of my bread, hath laid great wait for me.

10 But be thou merciful unto me, O Lord: raise thou me up again, and I shall reward them.
11 By this I know thou favour-rest me : that mine enemy doth not tri-umph a-gainst me.

12 And when I am in my health, thou up-hold-est me : and shalt set me before thy face for ever.

Psalm 42. Quemadmodum. xlfj.

Like as the hart de-si-reth the wa-ter-brooks : so longeth my soul af-ter thee, O God.

2 My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the liv-ing God : when shall I come to appear before the pre-sence of God ?

3 My tears have been my meat, day and night : while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God ?

4 Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by myself : for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth in-to the house of God ;

5 In the voice of praise and thanks-giving : among such as keep holy-day.

6 Why art thou so full of hea-viness, O my soul : and why art thou so disqu-i-et-ed within me ?

7 Put thy trust in God : for I will yet give him thanks for the help of his countenance.

8 My God, my soul is vex-ed with-in me : therefore will I remember thee concerning the land of Jordan, and the lit-tle hill of Hermon.

9 One deep calleth another, because of the noise of the wa-ter-pipes : all thy waves and storms are gone over me.

10 The Lord hath granted his loving-kindness in the daytime : and in the night-season did I sing of him, and made my prayer unto the God of my life.

11 I will say unto the God of my strength, Why hast thou for-got-ten me: why

12 My bones are smitten asun-der as with a sword: while mine enemies that trouble me cast me in the teeth.

13 Namely, while they say daily un-to me: — Where is now thy God?

14 Why art thou so vexed, O my soul: and why art thou so disqui-et-ed within

15 O put thy trust in God: for I will yet thank him, which is the help of my coun-te-nance, and my God.

Glory be to the Father. &c.

Y heart. Ps. We have heard.

Psalm 44. Deus auribus. xliii.

We have heard with our ears, O God, our fa-thers have told us: what thou

1 How thou hast driven out the heathen with thy hand, and planted them in:

how thou hast destroyed the na-tions, and cast them out.
3 For they gat not the land in possession through their own sword: neither was it their own arm that helped them.

4 But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance: because thou hadst a favour unto them.

5 Thou art my King, O God: send help unto Jacob.

6 Through thee will we over-throw our enemies: and in thy Name will we tread them under, that rise up against us.

7 For I will not trust in my bow: it is not my sword that shall help me;

8 But it is thou that savest us from our enemies: and puttest them to confusion that hate us.

9 We make our boast of God all day long: and will praise thy Name for ever.

10 But now thou art far off, and puttest us to confusion: and goest not forth with our armies.

11 Thou makest us to turn our backs upon our enemies: so that they which hate us spoil our goods.

12 Thou lettest us be eaten up like sheep: and hast scattered us among the heathen.

13 Thou seest thy people for naught: and takest no money for them.

14 Thou makest us to be rebuked of our neighbours: to be laughed to scorn, and had in derision of them that are round about us.

15 Thou makest us to be a by-word among the heathen: and that the people shake their heads at us.

16 My confusion is daily before me: and the shame of my face hath covered me;
17. For the voice of the slanderer and blasphemer: for the enemy and avenger.

18. And though all this be come upon us, yet do we not forget thee: nor behave ourselves frowardly in thy covenant.

19. Our heart is not turned back: neither our steps gone out of thy way;

20. No, not when thou hast smitten us into the place of dragons: and covered us with the shadow of death.

21. If we have forgotten the Name of our God, and holden up our hands to any strange god: shall not God search it out? for he knoweth the very secrets of the heart.

22. For thy sake also are we killed all the day long: and are counted as sheep appointed to be slain.

23. Up, Lord, why sleepest thou: awake, and be not absent from us for ever.

24. Wherefore hidest thou thy face: and forgettest our misery and trouble?

25. For our soul is brought low, even unto the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the ground.

26. A-rise, and help us: and deliver us, for thy mercy's sake.

Psalm 45. Eructavit cor meum. xliv.

My heart is inditing of a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made unto the King.

2. My tongue is the pen: of a ready writer.

3. Thou art fairer than the children of men: full of grace are thy lips, because God hath blessed thee for ever.

4. Gird thee with thy sword upon thy thigh, O thou most mighty: according to thy worship and renown.
5 Good luck have thou with thine honour: ride on, because of the word of truth, of meekness, and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

6 Thy arrows are very sharp, and the people shall be subdued unto thee: even in the midst among the King's enemies.

7 Thy seat, O God, endureth for ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

8 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity: wherefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

9 All thy garments smell of myrrh, aloes, and cassia: out of the ivory palaces, where-by they have made thee glad.

10 Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the Queen in a vesture of gold, wrought about with divers colours.

11 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, incline thine ear: forget also thine own people, and thy father's house.

12 So shall the King have pleasure in thy beauty: for he is thy Lord God, and worship thou him.

13 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift: like as the rich also among the people shall make their suppli-cation before thee.

14 The King's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.

15 She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needlework: the virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company, and shall be brought unto thee.

16 With joy and gladness shall they be brought: and shall enter into the King's palace.
17 Instead of thy fathers thou shalt have children: whom thou mayest make princes in all lands.

18 I will remember thy Name from one generation to another: therefore shall the people give thanks unto thee, world without end.

Glory be to the Father. &c.

Ps. God is our hope.

Psalm 46. Deus noster refugium. xlv.

God is our hope and strength: a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved: and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea.

3 Though the waters thereof rage and swell: and though the mountains shake at the tem-pest of the same.

4 The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the city of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the most Highest.

5 God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be re-moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

6 The heathen make much ado, and the king-doms are moved: but God hath shewed his voice, and the earth shall melt away.

7 The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Ja-cob is our refuge.

8 O come hither, and behold the works of the Lord: what destruction he hath brought upon the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease in all the world: he breaketh the bow, and knappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

10 Be still then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be ex-al-ted in the earth.

11 The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Ja-cob is our refuge.

Psalm 47. Omnes gentes plaudite. xlvj.

Clap your hands together, all ye people: O sing unto God with the voice of melody.

2 For the Lord is high, and to be feared: he is the great King up-on all the earth.

3 He shall subdue the people un-der us: and the na-tions un-der our feet.

4 He shall choose out an he-ritage for us: even the worship of Ja-cob, whom he loved.

5 God is gone up with a mer-ry noise: and the Lord with the sound of the trump.

6 O sing praises, sing prai-es un-to our God: O sing praises, sing prai-es unto our King.

7 For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with un-derstanding.

8 God reigneth o-ver the heathen: God sitteth up-on his holy seat.

9 The princes of the people are joined unto the people of the God of A-brah-aham: for God, which is very high exalted, doth defend the earth, as it were with a shield.

Glory be to the Father. &c.

Onder it with your ears. Ps. Great is the Lord.

Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised: in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill.

2 The hill of Sion is a fair place, and the joy of the whole earth: upon the north-side lieth the city of the great King; God is well known in her palaces as a sure refuge.

3 For lo, the kings of the earth: are gathered, and gone by together.

4 They marvel-led to see such things: they were astonished, and sud-den-ly cast down.

5 Fear came there up-on them, and sorrow: as upon a wo-man in her travail.

6 Thou shalt break the ships of the sea: — through the east-wind.

7 Like as we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God: God upholdeth the same for ever.

8 We wait for thy loving-kindness, O God: in the midst of thy temple.

9 O God, according to thy Name, so is thy praise un-to the world’s end: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

10 Let the mount Sion rejoice, and the daughters of Judah be glad: be-cause of thy judgements.

11 Walk about Sion, and go round a-bout her: and tell the tow-ers thereof.

12 Mark well her bulwarks, set up her houses: that ye may tell them that come after.

13 For this God is our God for ev-er and ever: he shall be our guide unto death.

Psalm 49. Audite hec omnes. xlviiij.

O hear ye this, all ye people: ponder it with your ears, all ye that dwell in the world.

2 High and low, rich and poor: one with another.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom: and my heart shall muse of un-derstanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to the pa-rable: and shew my dark speech upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of wick-edness: and when the wickedness of my heels com-pas-seth me round about?

6 There be some that put their trust in their goods: and boast themselves in the multi-tude of their riches.

7 But no man may de-liv-er his brother: nor make agree-ment un-to God for him;

8 For it cost more to re-deem their souls: so that he must let that a-lone for ever;

9 Yea, though he live long: — and see not the grave.

10 For he seeth that wise men also die, and pe-rish to-geth-er: as well as the ignorant and foolish, and leave their rich-es for other.

11 And yet they think that their houses shall con-tin-ue for ever: and that their dwelling-places shall endure from one generation to another; and call the lands af-
Nevertheless, man will not abide in honour: seeing he may be compared unto the beasts that perish; this is the way of them.

This is their foolishness: and their posterity praise their saying.

They lie in the hell like sheep, death gnaweth upon them, and the righteous shall have dominion over them in the morning: their beauty shall consume in the sepulchre out of their dwelling.

But God hath delivered my soul from the place of hell: for he shall receive me.

Be not thou afraid, though one be made rich: or if the glory of his house be increased;

For he shall carry nothing away with him when he dieth: neither shall his pomp follow him.

For while he lived, he counted himself an happy man: and so long as thou dost well unto thyself, men will speak good of thee.

He shall follow the generation of his fathers: and shall never see light.

Man being in honour hath no understanding: but is compared unto the beasts that perish.

Glory be to the Father. &c.

Onder it with your ears, ye that dwell in the world.
Psalm 50. Deus deorum. xlix.

THE Lord, † even the most high God, hath spoken: and called the world, from the rising up of the sun, unto the going down thereof.

2. Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beauty.

3. Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: there shall go before him a consuming fire, and a mighty tempest shall be stirred up round about him.

4. He shall call the heaven from above: and the earth, that he may judge his people.

5. Gather my saints together unto me: those that have made a covenant with me with sacrifice.

6. And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is Judge himself.

7. Hear, O my people, and I will speak: I myself will testify against thee, O Israel: for I am God, even thy God.

8. I will not reprove thee because of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt-offerings: because they were not alway before me.

9. I will take no bullock out of thine house: nor he-goat out of thy folds.

10. For all the beasts of the forest are mine: and so are the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11. I know all the fowls upon the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are in my sight.
12 If I be hungry, I will not tell thee: for the whole world is mine, and all that is therein.

13 Thinkest thou that I will eat bulls' flesh: and drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer unto God thanks-giving: and pay thy vows un-to the most Highest.

15 And call upon me in the time of trouble: so will I hear thee, and thou shalt praise me.

16 But unto the un-godly said God: Why dost thou preach my laws, and takest my co-ve-nant in thy mouth;

17 Whereas thou hastest to be re-formed: and hast cast my words behind thee?

18 When thou sawest a thief, thou con-sentedst un-to him: and hast been par-taker with the adulterers.

19 Thou hast let thy mouth speak wick-edness: and with thy tongue thou hast set forth deceit.

20 Thou satest, and spakest a-gainst thy brother: yea, and hast slander-ed thine own mother's son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I held my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly, that I am even such a one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set before thee the things that thou hast done.

22 O consider this, ye that for-get God: lest I pluck you away, and there be none to deliver you.

23 Whoso offereth me thanks and praise, he honour-eth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation right will I shew the sal-va-tion of God.

HY boastest thou thyself, thou tyrant: that thou canst do mischief;
2 Whereas the goodness of God: en-dur-eth yet daily?
3 Thy tongue i-ma-gineth wick-edness: and with lies thou cuttest like a sharp razor.
4 Thou hast loved unrighteousness more than goodness: and false-hood more than righteousness.
5 Thou hast loved to speak all words that may do hurt: — O thou false tongue.
6 Therefore shall God des-troy thee for ever: he shall take thee, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling, and root thee out of the land of the living.
7 The righteous also shall see this, and fear: and shall laugh him to scorn;
8 Lo, this is the man that took not God for his strength: but trusted unto the multitude of his riches, and strengthened him-self in his wickedness.
9 As for me, I am like a green olive-tree in the house of God: my trust is in the tender mercy of God for ev-er and ever.
10 I will alway give thanks unto thee for that thou hast done: and I will hope in thy Name, for thy saints like it well.

Song of Hezekiah. Isaiah xxxviii. Ego dixi.

I said, in the cutting off of my days: I shall go to the gates of the grave.

2 I am deprived of the residue of my years: I said, I shall not see the Lord, even the Lord in the land of the living.

3 I shall behold man no more: with the inhabitants of the world.

4 Mine age is departed: and is removed from me as a shepherd’s tent.

5 I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off with piping sickness.
6 From day even to night : wilt thou make an end of me.

7 I reckoned till morning that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones : from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

8 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter : I did mourn as a dove.

9 Mine eyes fail with looking upward : O Lord, I am oppressed ; undertake for me.

10 What shall I say ? He hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it : I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul.

11 O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit : so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.

12 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness ; but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption : for thou hast cast all my sins behind my back.

13 For the grave cannot praise thee, death cannot celebrate thee : they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

14 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day : the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

15 The Lord was ready to save me : therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the Lord.
