Psalm iv. Cum invocarem.

Hen I called upon him, the God of my justice heard me:
when I was in distress, thou hast enlarged me.

Have mercy on me: and hear my prayer.

O ye sons of men, how long will you be dull of heart: why do you love vanity, and seek after lying?

Know ye also that the Lord hath made his holy one wonderful: the Lord will hear me when I shall cry unto him.

Be ye angry, and sin not: the things you say in your hearts: be sorry for them upon your beds.

Offer up the sacrifice of justice, and trust in the Lord: many say, Who sheweth us good things?

The light of thy countenance, O Lord, is signed upon us: thou hast given gladness in my heart.

By the fruit of their corn, their wine, and oil: they are multiplied.

In peace in the same: I will sleep, and I will rest:

For thou, O Lord, singularly: hast settled me in hope.

Glory be to the Father, [and to the Son].

Psalm xxx. In te Domine speravi.

In thee, O Lord, have I hoped, let me never be confounded: deliver me in thy justice.

Bow down thy ear to me: make haste to deliver me.

Be thou unto me a God, a protector, and a house of refuge: to save me.

For thou art my strength and my refuge: and for thy name’s sake thou wilt lead me, and nourish me.

Thou wilt bring me out of this snare, which they have hidden for me: for thou art my protector.

Into thy hands I commend my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, the God of truth.

Glory be to the Father, [and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost].

[406]
Psalm xc. Qui habitat.

He that dwelleth in the aid of the most High : shall abide under the protection of the God of Jacob.

He shall say to the Lord, Thou art my protector, and my refuge: my God, in him will I trust.

For he hath delivered me from the snare of the hunters: and from the sharp word.

He will overshadow thee with his shoulders: and under his wings thou shalt trust.

His truth shall compass thee with a shield: thou shalt not be afraid of the terror of the night.

Of the arrow that flieth in the day, of the business that walketh about in the dark: of invasion, or of the noon-day devil.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

But thou shalt consider with thy eyes: and shalt see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou, O Lord, art my hope: thou hast made the most High thy refuge.

There shall no evil come to thee: nor shall the scourge come near thy dwelling.

For he hath given his angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.

In their hands they shall bear thee up: lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt walk upon the asp and the basilisk: and thou shalt trample under foot the lion and the dragon.

Because he hoped in me I will deliver him: I will protect him because he hath known my name.

He shall cry to me, and I will hear him: I am with him in tribulation, I will deliver him, and I will glorify him.

I will fill him with length of days: and I will shew him my salvation. 10

Psalm cxxxiii. Ecce nunc.

Ehold now bless ye the Lord: all ye servants of the Lord:
Who stand in the house of the Lord: in the courts of the house of our God.
In the nights lift up your hands to the holy places: and bless ye the Lord.

May the Lord out of Sion bless thee: he that made heaven and earth.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost. 11
The above Psalms are said Compline of the day throughout the year whatever the service be, except from Maundy Thursday until the Octave of Easter. They are sung under a single Tone with no intonation for the beginning of any succeeding Psalm.¹²

Ant.

Ave mercy upon me, O Lord: and hear my prayer.

The preceding Antiphon is said on these Psalms through the whole of Advent and from the morrow of the Octave of Epiphany until Lent, and from Passion Sunday until Maundy Thursday, and from the morrow of Trinity Sunday until the Advent of the Lord: except on the Feasts nor during the Octaves of the Name of Jesus and of S. Mary and not on the Feast of Relics neither on the Feast of All Saints.

Chapter. Jeremiah xiii. [9.]

Hou, O Lord, art among us, and thy name is called upon by us, forsake us not, O Lord our God. [R. Thanks be to God.]¹³

This Chapter is said at Compline throughout the whole year except from Maundy Thursday until the Octave of Easter.¹⁴

[This Hymn is sung with the following melody on all Sundays and on Simple Feasts with Rulers of the Choir and on Commemorations of Blessed Mary and on the Feast of the Place and on any Octave days and during any Octaves when this Hymn is sung at Compline, except when the service is of the feria.]¹⁵

Veni Domine. AS:7; 1519-P:148r, 148v; 1531-P:44r.

Ant. VII.i. Ome, O Lord. Ps. Now thou dost dismiss.

Now thou dost dismiss thy servant : according to thy word in peace.
Because mine eyes have seen : thy salvation.
Which thou hast prepared : before the face of all peoples.
A light to the revelation of the Gentiles : and the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be [to the Father, and to the Son].²⁰

Ant. Ome, O Lord, and visit us in peace : that we may joy be-fore thee with a perfect heart.

Kyrie eleyson. &c. Here follow the Preces. [510].

This Compline is not altered in Advent, except on Double Feasts that fall within Advent: then in fact the Hymn is changed to the solemn form: and the Hymn Thee, Saviour of the World. [476]. is sung. And except on Commemorations of S. Mary which are celebrated in Advent: then in fact at the end of the Hymn is sung All honour . . . O Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee. [500].

Hee, Saviour of the world, we pray, * Who hast preserv'd us through the day, Pro-tect us through the coming night, And save us al-way, Lord of might. 2. Be with us now, in mercy nigh, And spare thy servants when they cry,

Our sins blot out, our prayers re-ceive, Our darkness lighten, and forgive. 3. O let not sleep o'ercome the soul, Nor Sa-tan with his spi-rits foul : Our flesh keep chaste, that it may be, An ho- ly temple unto thee. 4. To thee, who dost our souls re-new, With heartfelt vows we humbly sue,
That pure in heart, and free from stain, We from our beds may

First Sunday of Lent. And on all Double Feasts from [the Vigil of]23 Pentecost until the Vigil of the Nativity of the Lord except on the Feast and during the Octave of the Name of Jesus when the service is of the Octave, but it is nevertheless sung on Feasts of Nine Lessons that occur within the Octave. It is likewise sung on the Vigil of Pentecost and during the same week, that is on the Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. And daily during the Octaves and on the Octave Days of the Assumption and of the Nativity of Blessed Mary and of the Dedication of the Church24 if the service is of the Octave or of any Saint of Nine Lessons, and during the Octave of Corpus Christi when it is observed with Rulers of the Choir.
[ On the day of the Nativity of the Lord at Compline after Second Vespers and from then until the Feast of the Epiphany after both Vespers and also on all the Feasts of the Assumption, the Nativity, the Purification, and the Conception of Blessed Mary and during their Octaves is sung the V. All honour . . . O Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee. and on the Feast of the Epiphany and during its Octave is sung All honour . . . For thine Epiphany to-day.]
