First Sunday in the Advent of the Lord.
In the Name of the Holy and Undivided Trinity.

Amen.

Here beginneth the Order of the Breviary According to the Custom and Use of the English Church of Sarum.

The First Sunday of the Advent

[of the Lord].

At [First] Vespers.

[The bells having been rung in the usual way, and the lamps lit, the Priest officiating at the Office having said the Lord’s Prayer, namely Pater noster. and Ave Maria. with the whole Choir meanwhile standing turned towards the Altar, let the Office of Vespers be begun.

And be it understood that on every day of the year when a service is made : at the beginning of Vespers, Compline, Matins and the other Hours of the day, Pater noster. and Ave Maria. are always said by the whole Choir privately, and this standing in silence.]  [And be it understood that at no time is Pater noster. nor any other Prayer said while sitting at Vespers or at Matins or at Mass, but always while standing or prostrate, whether by the Priest or by the whole Choir, and this throughout the whole year according to the Use of Sarum.\[24\]

[\[\[ Then let the officiating Priest sing in a high voice this way thus.

Deus in adjutorium. AS:1; 1519:4r; US-II:lxxv.\[25\]

80093.

God, come to my assistance.

Which while he singeth let the Priest sign himself with the Sign of the Cross\[26\] [on the breast or before his face].\[27\]
[And let the Choir respond at once.\[28\]

R. O Lord, make haste to help me. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end, amen. Alleluia.

[And let it be concluded thus with Alleluia. throughout the whole year except from First Vespers of Septuagesima Sunday until Easter: then indeed let be sung in its place this way.\[29\]
First Sunday in the Advent of the Lord.

Praise be to thee, O Lord, King of eternal glory.

On the ferial Psalms. [One of the Second Form begins.]

Benedictus Dominus Deus. AS:1, 101, pl. a; 1519:4r; 1531:42v; US-II:lxv.

1. Ant. VI.

Benedictus Dominus Deus. AS:1, 101, pl. a; 1519:4r; 1531:42v; US-II:lxv.

[Let the Ruler of the Choir continue the same Psalm itself (cxliv.) [393]. thus.]

The Lord my God: who teacheth my hands to fight, and my fingers to war.

[And let it always be done thus whenever the Antiphon and its Psalm have the same beginning in a whole word, except in the Antiphon Bring to the Lord. (Ps. xxviiij.) and in the Antiphon Blessed are all they. (Ps. cxxxviiij.) and in similar cases, because then the Psalm is finally taken up not in the second word but in the iiiij. : but rarely in the iiij. word.

And be it understood that all the Antiphons throughout the year which are begun before the intonation of the Psalms: should always be begun according to the variations of the Differences, as shall be fully described in the Great Tonary. And let such Psalms not be begun before the variation is completed.

The Psalm being ended with Glory be to the Father. and As it was. let the Antiphon be begun again by the Succentor or the Cantor and sung through by the whole Choir, which should be observed throughout the whole year in Antiphons that are recommenced and sung after the Psalms.]
First Sunday in the Advent of the Lord.

[3.] Ant. In my life. Ps. Praise the Lord, O my soul. (cxlv.) [395].

[4.] Ant. Unto our God. Ps. Praise ye the Lord, because psalm is good. (cxlvij.) [396].

[Before the Psalm is intoned let this [following] Antiphon be begun this way.] [35]

Lauda Hierusalem. AS: pl. a.; 1519:4v; 1531-P:43r; US-II:lxxv. [36]

5. Ant. IV.vii. 3582.

Raise the Lord.

[Let the Ruler of the Choir continue this way.] [37]

O Je-ru-sa-lem. (cxlvij.) [397].

But after the Psalm let the Antiphon be begun and continued this way. [38]

[Let the Neuma follow this way.] [39]

These foregoing Antiphons with their Psalms are sung at [this] Vespers in the aforesaid manner on all Saturdays throughout the whole year outside of Eastertide when the service is of the Sunday.

But at the beginning of the iiiij. Psalm let three boys, having received permission from the Ruler of the Choir, come forward to vest themselves, two to carry the Tapers, and the third the Thurible.

Let the final Antiphon at this Vespers and likewise at any [other] Vespers throughout the whole year, whether on Feasts or on ferias, always be concluded with a Neuma. Let it be done likewise at each Nocturn [at Matins]\(^{42}\) and at Lauds, and at whatever Antiphon on the Benedictus. and Magnificat. and Quicunque vult. throughout the whole year, except from the Passion of the Lord until the Octave of Easter : and not in the Office of the Dead, in accordance with what will later be clearly indicated in that Office. However at Terce, Sext, None, and Compline throughout the whole year the Neuma is entirely omitted.

At Vespers let it always be in this order : that is, if there are five Antiphons on the Psalms, as here, let the fifth always be ended with a Neuma : if there be only one <Antiphon> on the Psalms, let that one be ended <with a Neuma>. Likewise at Matins if there be three Antiphons in the first Nocturn, let the final one end with a Neuma. Let it be likewise in the second and third Nocturns.

If indeed there be five Antiphons at Lauds, let the last be concluded with a Neuma. If there be only one after the Psalms, let that one be ended <with a Neuma>.

The Chapter is read at a high pitch by the Priest [officiating at the Office]\(^{43}\) changing neither place nor vestment : but turning himself towards the Altar : not singing, but reading in the Tone of the Lesson\(^{44}\) : which is to be observed throughout the year : even on Double Feasts, this way.]\(^{45}\)

[Let the Choir respond this way.] 47

Thanks be to God.

Resp. VIII. Ecce dies veniunt. AS:2; 1519:5r; 1531:1r. 49

E hold, * the days come, saith the Lord, and I will raise up to Da-vid a just branch: and a King shall reign and shall be wise, and shall ex- ecute judg- ment and jus-tice in the earth. †And this is the Name that they shall call him. ‡The Lord, and to the Ho-ly Ghost. ‡The Lord.

[Indeed, whenever a \R. is sung at First Vespers throughout the whole year on Feasts and on Sundays: let it be sung by two Clerks of the Second Form, except for this \R. and except for the \R. of both Sundays in the Passion of our Lord, namely Lying men. except on Double Feasts and on all Feasts which have a Double Invitatory\textsuperscript{50} and except on the Feasts of Saints Dionysius, Clement and Vincent. Indeed, those Responsories are sung by two of the Superior Grade at the Quire Step.

Hymn.

IV.

Ear Mak-er of the starry skies, * Light nev-er lost by faithful eyes, Christ, the salvation sent to all, Be near thy servants when they call. 2. Thy love that pitied from on high A guilty race foredoomed to die, Was fain that sentence to repeal, Those failing energies to heal. 3. So, at the eventide of earth, From that bridechamber of thy birth Our mortal flesh thou didst assume, Born of a spotless Virgin's womb. 4. O thou, at whose august decree, Once heard, creation bends the knee, While heaven and earth obey thy will, Trembling before thee, and are still. 5. Holiest of holy ones, from whom Eternity receives its doom, In this brief world of time, we pray, Keep Sa-tan's treacherous darts at bay. 6. To God the Father, God the Son,

And God the Spi-rit, Three in one, Glo-ry and power and ma-jesty Through ev-erlasting a-ges be. A-men.

[The Hymn having been sung] let one of the boys from the Choir Side sing the following Versicle [changing neither place or vestment, but turning towards the Altar. Let the same order apply to any boy whenever he sings alone the Versicle or the Benedicamus. The Versicle is sung thus.]

Rorate celi. AS:2; 1519:5v; 1531:1v; US-II:lxxvj.

V. Drop down dew, ye heavens, from a-bove.
[Let the Choir respond privately] [this way].

And with thy spirit.

(In the Tone indicated above are said all Prayers throughout the whole year at Vespers and at Matins, except on the three ferias immediately\(^77\) before Easter, and in the Office of the Dead.)\(^78\)

[The Manner of Concluding the Prayers.]\(^79\)

The nature of the Prayers which we are about to say should be known and understood by us, whether at Mass or at the Hours. How we ought to conclude them we can in no way know, except by understanding the nature of the Prayers themselves. At the Altar none should name the Father in place of the Son, nor the Son in place of the Father: but those Prayers that we address to the Father without mentioning the Son we should conclude thus: Through our Lord Jesus Christ, thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God. World \([\text{without end.}]\)\(^80\) As in the following and many similar to them. Grant we beseech thee, O Lord. O God, who hast ordained. Whence the Verse:

'Through our Lord' thou shoudst say:

When to the Father, O Priest, thou dost pray.

Likewise those Prayers which we address to the Father in which the Son is mentioned near the beginning, we should end thus: Through the same our Lord \(<\text{Jesus Christ, thy Son.}>\) and so on, as in the following and many similar to them. O God, who didst will that thy Word. Grant, O most merciful Father. However if near the end, we finish thus Who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity \(<\text{of the Holy Ghost}>.\) and so on, as in the following and similar ones. Almighty and everlasting God, we beseech thee to direct our actions. Grant us, O Lord, we beseech thee, so to imitate. Whence the Verse:

At the beginning remembering the Begotten, the end is 'Through the same'.

If near the end, 'Who liveth and reigneth with thee', thou shouldst say.

But Prayers which we address to the Son alone, we end thus. Who with God the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest. as in the Prayer O God, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful. or O God, who for our redemption. Stir up we beseech thee, O Lord. and likewise others of this type. Whence the Verse.

When thou speakest of Christ. Remember, 'who livest' is near.

Likewise, Prayers addressed to the Father in which we make mention of the Trinity we should conclude thus. Who livest and reignest, God. World without. as in the following and similar ones. Almighty and everlasting God, who hast given unto us thy servants. May the reception of this sacrament. Whence the Verse:

Say 'Who livest and reignest': where the Trinity is mentioned.

Nevertheless those Prayers that we address to the Trinity similarly 81 : we conclude thus, Who livest and reignest, God. World without. Next, the Prayers addressed to the Father in which we mention the Holy Ghost are concluded thus. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, thy Son: who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the same Holy Ghost, God. World without. as in the following and similar ones. O God, who didst instruct the hearts. Whence the Verse.

When commemorating the Spirit: say 'the same' near the end.

But those Prayers that we address to the Son with a mention of the Holy Ghost we conclude thus. Who livest and reignest with the Father and with the same Holy Ghost, God. World without. as in the following and similar ones. O Lord Jesus Christ who entered into the gates. 82

It should be known that according to Roman authority no Prayer is concluded 83 with the words Through him who shall come to judge [the quick and the dead]. 84 unless it be an exorcism, in which we charge the Devil by the judgement of God to withdraw from God's creature. That applies even to other Prayers including the words *Through our Lord. We beseech the Father to help us for the love of his Son. But in an exorcism it is before the judgement of God that we adjure the Devil to be gone.

It should be known that on all Double Feasts throughout the year the first and second Let us bless the Lord. are sung by two. On Feasts with a Triple Invitatory, the first Let us bless the Lord. is sung by two, and the second Let us bless the Lord. is sung by one: nevertheless on Double Feasts with a Triple Invitatory the first Let us bless the Lord. is always sung by two of the Second Form in Surplices at the Choir Step. However on Double Feasts the second Let us bless the Lord. is always sung by two boys in Surplices at the Choir Step. Nevertheless for the second Let us bless the Lord. when the Invitatory is Triple, and on Simple Feasts whether of ix. or of iii. Lessons, and whether the Choir is ruled or not, and on Sundays and Feast-days whether in or out of Eastertide, then the first and also the second Let us bless the Lord. are sung by one boy only, once the Prayer is finished, changing neither place nor vestment, with this melody.\(^{85}\)

\(\text{Benedicamus Domino. AS:4; 1519:6v; 1531:1v.}\)\(^{86}\)

\(\text{V. Let us bless the Lord.}\)

Let no procession be made before the Cross on this Saturday at Vespers, nor from this time until the Sunday after Easter,\(^{87}\) and then let it be begun.

On this day itself let no Memorial be made except of Saint Mary. Nevertheless, should the Feast of Saint Andrew already have passed, or should it fall upon the same [day],\(^{88}\) then a Memorial shall be made of the same which shall precede the Memorial of Blessed Mary, both on the day itself and daily during the Octave and on the Octave Day: and then let the Prayer of the same conclude thus.

\(\text{AS:4; 1519:6v; 1531:1v, US-II:211.}\)\(^{89}\)

\(\text{Through Christ our Lord. R#: A\- men.}\)

And it should be understood that when [any]\(^{90}\) Memorial or Procession is made at Vespers or at Matins, then at all Prayers after the first Benedicamus Domino. which are ended with Who livest and reignest with the God the Father [and the Holy Spirit].
First Sunday in the Advent of the Lord.

or with Who with God the Father and the Holy Spirit [livest and reignest, God].

or with Who livest and reignest God for [ever and ever]. or with Who liveth and reigneth with thee [in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever] are always said through to the end. Nevertheless <in> Prayers which are ended thus,

AS:5; 1531:1v.

Our Lord Je-sus Christ, thy Son.

nothing further is said, but immediately is said

R. Amen. by the Choir, and after that the Procession or Memorial shall be made.

When however after the first Benedicamus Domino. there follows any Memorial or Procession after a Prayer which ends thus Through our Lord. or thus Through the same [our Lord]. then it is concluded thus Through Christ our Lord. or thus Through the same Christ our Lord. Let it be done similarly after those Prayers which are said following a Procession before Mass [or after Mass].

\text{V.} Send forth thy Spirit, and they shall be created.

[\text{R.} And thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

[\text{V.}] [Let us pray.]\textsuperscript{114}
First Sunday in the Advent of the Lord.

Prayer.

O GOD, who didst teach the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Ghost: grant us in the same Spirit to understand rightly, and ever to rejoice in his consolation. Through Christ our Lord.

[Memorial of the Saint of the Place.]

Then let be made a Memorial of the Saint in whose honour the Church is dedicated, whether it be in a Benefice or in other Parish Churches. [According to the Use of the Parish Churches of Salisbury, it should be said at Vespers and at Matins of the Blessed Virgin, but not at Vespers or at Matins of the day, and this throughout the whole year, that is to say immediately after the Memorial of the Holy Spirit.] And afterwards, that of Relics, according to the Old Ordinal.

[Memorial of Relics.]

Corpora sanctorum.

*Blessed are they that dwell in thy house, O Lord. *

R. They shall praise thee for ever and ever.

[VE] [Let us pray.]

Prayer.

Be favourable, we beseech thee O Lord, to us thy servants, that through the glorious merits of thy Saints whose relics are now preserved in this church: we may by their devout intercession be ever protected from all adversities. Through Christ our Lord. [R.] [Amen.]

Another Prayer for Matins only.

Rant, we beseech thee, almighty God, that the merits of thy Saints whose relics are preserved in this church may protect us: that by their prayers we may continually rejoice in praising thee in quiet peace. Through Christ our Lord.
[Memorial of All Saints.]

A Memorial of All Saints should always be made at Vespers and at Matins of Saint Mary: whenever the Choir is ruled. On all other days to be sure let a Memorial be made at Vespers and at Matins of the day, which is to be observed throughout the year: except from the beginning of Lent until Maundy Thursday: then indeed no Memorial is made of the Feast of the Place, nor of All Saints either at Vespers or at Matins of the day.

Ecce Dominus veniet. AS:13; pl. d.; pl. e.; 1519:14r; 1531:2r; 9r; 1531kP:17v.

Ant. V.i. 2509.

Ehold, the Lord shall come, * and all his Saints with him: and there shall be in that day a great light, al-le-lu-ya.

V. Behold, the Lord shall appear upon a white cloud.
R. And with him thousands of Saints.

[V.] [Let us pray.]¹²²

Prayer.

Isit, we beseech thee, O Lord, and purify our consciences: that our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, coming with all the Saints, may find in us an abode prepared for himself. Who liveth and reigneth with thee.

Memorial of Peace.

Da pacem Domine.

Ant. Give peace in our days, * O Lord: because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, our God.

V. Let peace be in thy strength, O Lord.
R. And abundance in thy towers.

25
First Sunday in the Advent of the Lord.

[precation]

The following Prayer is said only at Vespers.

Prayer.

God, from whom are holy desires, right counsels, and just works: give to thy servants that peace which the world cannot give: that both our hearts may be disposed to obey thy commandments, and, the fear of enemies being removed, the times, by thy protection, may be tranquil.

Which is concluded thus. Through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son. Who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, world without end. R: Amen.

Let this other which follow be said only at Matins.

Prayer.

God, the Author and Lover of peace, whom to know is to live, to serve is to reign, protect thy suppliant people from all assaults: that we who trust in thy defense may fear the weapons of no foe.

Through Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord: who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, world without end. R: Amen.

[Let us pray.]

With The Lord be with you. [R: And with thy spirit.]

and Let us bless the Lord. [R: Thanks be to God.

And the above Prayer is said at Vespers.

Thus let the final Prayer at Vespers and at Matins and at Compline be concluded throughout the year.

Hymn. VIII.

O thee, be-fore the close of day, * Cre-a-tor of the world, we pray: With all thy won- ted clemency Our princely guard and keeper be. 2. Far may unho-ly visions fly, No fiend of darkness venture nigh; Do thou re-pel th'infernal foe,  And peace and pu-ri-ty bestow.  3.  Almighty Father!  hear our cry, Through Je-sus Christ our Lord most high; Who, with the Ho-ly Ghost and thee, Doth reign throughout e-terni-ty.  Amen.

Let this Hymn be sung at Compline throughout the whole year: except on Double Feasts, and in Octaves with ruling of the Choir, and from xl. until the morrow of the Holy Trinity.

Custodi nos Domine.  AS:7; 1531:2r; 1531-P:44r.  136

R. Keep us, O Lord.

R. As the apple of thy eye: protect us under the shadow of thy wings.  <privately.>

Ome, O Lord, * and vi-sit us in peace: that we may joy be-fore thee with a perfect heart.  Ps. Now thou dost. [411].

[The Antiphon being finished] the Preces follow [from Choir Side, and let them be begun by a lesser person thus.]

AS:7; 1519-P:149r; US-Il:xvii; 1531-P:46r.

Ord, have mercy. iij. Christ, have mercy. iij.

Lord, have mercy. ij. Lord, have mercy.

[and they are sung in alternation.]

[And let the Choir then say] Pater noster. [5]. <secretly.>

[Which said, let the Priest sing thus.]

AS:7; 1531:8r; 1531-P:46r; US-II:xvii.

[V. And lead us not into temptation.]
But deliver us from evil.

In peace in the selfsame. I will sleep, and I will rest.

The resurrection of the body. And the life everlasting. Amen. Let us bless the Father and the Son, with the Holy Ghost. Let us praise him, and exalt him above all for ever. Blessed art thou, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven. And worthy of praise, and glorious, and exalted above all for ever. May the Almighty and merci-ful Lord bless and pre-serve us.

Let the Choir respond.

Amen.

Let a more distinguished person, of course a Priest, say [in a low voice].

Confiteor.

I confess to God, to Blessed Mary, to all the saints, turning himself to the Choir, and to you, that I have sinned exceedingly: in thought, word, and deed, through my own fault.

Turning back to the Altar, I beseech Holy Mary, all the saints of God, turning back to the Choir, and you to pray for me.

Let the Choir respond to him.

Misereatur.

AY almighty God have mercy upon thee and forgive thee all thy sins, deliver thee from every evil, preserve and strengthen thee in goodness and bring thee to life everlasting. [R: The Priest. Amen.]

Afterwards, turning to the Altar, I confess. as above.

Then let the Priest say to the Choir, facing them, this way.

AY almighty God have mercy upon you and forgive you all your sins, deliver you from every evil, preserve and strengthen you in goodness and bring you to life everlasting. [R: Amen.]

Then let the Priest say.

Absolutionem.

THE almighty and mercifull Lord grant you absolution and remission of all our sins, time for true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and comfort of the Holy Ghost. [R: Amen.]

Whether at Prime or at Compline throughout the whole year when Confiteor. is said, then let the Officiating Priest sing [the following Preces] [raising the voice].

daily throughout the year, except only on the Vigil of the Dead and on All Souls’ Day and also on the three nights before Easter, which are ended as is shown at those Lessons.

[On this Tone indicated above all the Lessons at Matins are read throughout the whole year except for the first three Lessons on the three ferias next before Easter.] 198

When the Lesson is ended the Choir should not respond Thanks be to God. [audibly] 199 but immediately without interval the Responsory should be begun, which is to be observed throughout the whole year.

[To the question whether we ought to say But thou, O Lord. or Thus saith the Lord. after the Lessons in the Commemoration of Saint Mary in Advent, it is answered that But thou, O Lord. is to be said where the Lessons that are read are not from the Prophets.] 200

201 On this day let the first Responsory be begun by three boys in Surplices at the Quire Step, turned towards the Altar: and it should be taken up by the Choir, that is to say let two boys from the Choir Side, together with a third boy from the opposite side standing in the middle of them, begin together.

Second Lesson. [Isaiah 1 5–9.]

Or what shall I strike you any more, you that increase transgression? the whole head is sick, and the whole heart is sad. From the sole of the foot unto the top of the head, there is no soundness therein: wounds and bruises and swelling sores: they are not bound up, nor dressed, nor fomented with oil. Your land is desolate, your cities are burnt.
with fire: your country strangers devour before your face, and it shall be desolate as when wasted by enemies. And the daughter of Sion shall be left as a covert in a vineyard, and as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, and as a city that is laid waste. Except the Lord of hosts had left us seed, we had been as Sodom, and we should have been like to Gomorrha.

Third Lesson. [Isaiah 1:10-15.]

Hear the word of the Lord, ye rulers of Sodom, give ear to the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrha. To what purpose do you offer me the multitude of your victims, saith the Lord? I am full, I desire not holocausts of rams, and fat of fatlings, and blood of calves, and lambs, and buck goats. When ye came to appear before me, who required these things at your hands, that you should walk in my courts? Offer sacrifice no more in vain oblations: incense is an abomination to me. The new moons, and the sabbaths, the other festivals I will not abide, your assemblies are wicked. My soul hateth your new moons, and your solemnities: they are become troublesome to me, I am weary to bearing them. And when you stretch forth your hands, I will turn away my eyes from you: and when you multiply prayer, I will not hear: for your hands are full of blood. Thus saith the Lord [God, turn unto me: and ye shall be saved].

Fourth Lesson.

There fore since after a time we ought to refresh ourselves with spiritual food: let us see what is described in the Gospel-reading. The Lord in fact speaketh, (as we have heard) concerning the time of his coming. As the lightening that lighteneth from under heaven: so shall the coming of the Son of man be. And he hath added subsequently, In that night there shall be two in one bed, the one shall be taken: and the one shall be left. Two women shall be grinding at the mill, one shall be taken: and one shall be left. It perhaps disturbeth ye, brethren, why the Lord in his appearance indicateth that the night-season itself shall reveal his coming, seeing that certainly his advent, full of the brightness of the day, full of trembling and dread, ought to be received by all. But thou.

When ṬV. Gloria Patri. 98*. is sung let ‡Because indeed. be repeated.
Frequently we have heard it proclaimed in the sacred books, that before the Lord Jesus Christ cometh shall be the reign of the Antichrist. Who shall so pour out the darkness of depravity upon the human race that almost no one shall observe the light of truth: and who shall exhibit a particular mist covering the minds of men, a certain blindness covering the spiritual eyes. Nor should it be wondered at if the devil should send forth the darkness of iniquity: seeing that he himself is the night of all sinners. Therefore on this [night] the foul gloom shall be dispersed: just as the brightness of Christ shall surely come. And as night is overturned by the light of day: so by the glittering Saviour shall the Antichrist be driven away. Neither shall he any more be able to spread forth the darkness of his iniquity: seeing that the light of truth shall shine forth. However, in so far as it is said, In that night there shall be two in one bed, the one shall be taken, and the one shall be left: here even now the merit of the Resurrection is indicated, that the grace of rising again is in accordance with the character of one’s life. And so great is the difference between each of these resurrections: that even two sleeping and resting alike in one dwelling, are not equally able to be taken up. For although it is understood that they share the same bed: yet on account of merit the one shall be carried up into heaven, the other shall be left behind on the earth. For this broad earth is in fact our common bed: in which our bodies have been laid, they rest in a safe dwelling. Moreover he who beareth himself uprightly in this life: sleepeth peacefully in this bed. But thou.

5. Resp. IV. E-ceive the Word, * O Vir-gin Ma- ry, which Sixth Lesson.

Furthermore we are able to call our bodies themselves our particular beds: in which our souls do linger as if on some most sweet couch. Which indeed I imagine the holy prophet did think: when he saith, Thou hast turned all his couch in his sickness. Blessed indeed is the one whose couch in his infirmity the Lord hath overturned: so that he who a little earlier was angry and impure and wanton and full of the infirmities of all wicked doings, his body having been accustomed to wickedness, the Lord turneth, that it be made chaste, humble and modest. Concerning which couch was said spiritually to the paralytic by the Lord, Arise, take up thy bed, and walk. Indeed there was no less admiration in it, that the paralytic would carry the broken-down framework of a wooden bed: as that he himself would bear the healed members of his body and the infirmity of his debility, just as the paralytic himself would bear the bed that is needful for his soul, and (he that) had been placed before the Jews would depart by his own feet: who had been brought by the hands of others. In this clearly (as I have said) are fulfilled the those words of the prophet, Thou hast turned his couch in his sickness: thus conversely it was that he did carry the bed in which a little earlier he had been carried. And his soul which previously was borne in the container of his body: afterward itself did practically carry about his body. Now too what is said can be understood. There shall be two in one bed: the one shall be taken namely the people of Christ, and the one shall be left the people of the Jews. Which in one bed: this is as if keeping the one law of the commandments: and likewise as if glorying in the hope of the resurrection. At that time then the blessed people of Christ shall be taken up into glory: but the detestable assembly of the Jews shall be left behind upon the earth. But thou.

Bethphage, is interpreted house of the mouth or house of the jaw, which was a village of priests, was a type of confession: and it was situated on the Mount of Olives, where there is the light of knowledge, where there is rest from labor and suffering. Then sent he two of his disciples. Not without cause can the two disciples sent to bring the beasts to the Lord be understood to signify two orders of preachers: one evidently for the Gentiles, another directed to the circumcised. Whereby properly two are sent: whether on account of knowledge of the truth and purity of action, or by means of a double love, evidently of God and of neighbour, the mystery might be proclaimed to the whole world. [But thou O Lord.]

Eighth Lesson.

O ye into the village that is over against you. That is to say it was against the apostles: nor was it willing to accept the yoke of doctrines. Thus these disciple-teachers whom he sent signifieth: those whom he sent to penetrate the ignorant and barbarous places of the whole world, as if pitched against a fortified village, by preaching the gospel. And immediately you shall find an ass tied; and a colt with her. Loose them: and bring them to me. When the holy preachers were going out into the world: they found peoples of faithless nations entangled in chains. Indeed each one was bound with the cords of their sins. Not only of the heathens: but to be sure also of the Jews. For all have sinned, and do need the glory of God. The ass of course which has been yoked and tamed, signifieth the synagogue where the yoke of the law was drawn up: the colt of the ass, wanton and free, signifieth the people of the heathens. Upon which no man yet hath sat: because none among reasonable teachers, has persuaded the people of the nations to receive the bridle of correction, whether that the tongue be restrained from evil, or that they be compelled to walk in the narrow way of life, none by which a garment of salvation has made spiritually warm: or has persuaded the people of the nations profitably to come together. Indeed let a man sit upon it: if such a one by use of reason, may correct his foolishness that it be suppressed. But thou, O Lord.

Lesson ix.

And if any man shall say anything to you: say ye, that the Lord hath need of them: and forthwith he will let them go. In Luke it is written, because the owners thereof said to them. Why loose you the colt? And [it was] clearly sufficient. It of course had many owners: whereby it was devoted not to one doctrine and superstition, but, by whichever unclean spirits, towards various and diverse errors: to dumb idols according as it was led walking along. This also all came to pass, that it should be fulfilled what has been told by the prophet saying, Say ye, daughters of Sion. Behold thy king cometh to thee, meek: and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of her that is used to the yoke. This has been written in Zacharia. The daughter of Sion is historically all of Jerusalem: or Sion which was situated in the citadel. However spiritually it signifieth the Holy Church to which Christ hath condescended to come. Which thy King hath said, and if it should be said, Not foreign, not different: but particular. Gentle: that is not cruel and savage as others. He indeed of himself saith, Learn of me, because I am meek, and humble of heart. [But thou, O Lord.]

If however any Feast of ix. Lessons shall fall on another Sunday in Advent let it be deferred until the morrow : unless it be a Double Feast. And when242 it is deferred until the morrow, or a Feast shall fall on that same feria : then to be sure Vespers on the Sunday shall be Vespers of the Feast : and a Solemn Memorial of the Sunday shall precede the Memorial of Saint Mary.

And it should be understood that no matter what Feast is observed within Advent : there will always be a Solemn Memorial of Advent and of Saint Mary. But of Feasts of iij. Lessons [falling]243 in Advent, let nothing be observed other than the Octave of Saint Andrew [the Apostle]: not even a Memorial should be made according to the Use of Sarum.

Let it be noted that if the Feast of Saint Andrew shall fall on the First Sunday of the Advent of the Lord, [the Feast] should always be deferred [until] the morrow, unless the Church be dedicated in honour of Saint Andrew. Seek for the remaining rubrics of Saint Andrew at the Feast of the same.

\text{V.} With thy comeliness and thy beauty. \( \text{R.} \) Set out, proceed.\(^{247}\) \( \text{as above.} \)

\[ \text{Thursday, Friday and Saturday.} \]

On Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, when the Full Service of Saint Mary is not observed, the same order of Antiphons, Psalms, and Versicles shall serve as on the preceding ferias.

\text{But}\(^{248}\) it should be understood that when the service of Saint Mary is omitted in Quire on account of any [Double]\(^{249}\) Feast, nevertheless the ferial order of Antiphons, Psalms, and Versicles should be kept on the following ferias in convent, which is to be observed generally throughout the whole year. For daily through the whole year, whether in Quire or out of Quire, Vespers and Matins of Saint Mary should be said [except on the day of the Nativity of the Lord and on that of the Circumcision, and on the Vigil of the Epiphany, and on the Feast of All Saints].\(^{250}\) Which is generally to be observed throughout the year. Let all the Lessons be read in the Second Form, likewise let the Responsorial Verses be said by the same readers, provided that the first and iiij. Lessons be read from one side of the Choir and the second from the other side of the Choir, which should be observed throughout the year in the daily Matins of Saint Mary.

\[ \text{At Matins}\(^{251}\) of Saint Mary. \text{Lesson 1. Isaiab. 11. [1-2.]} \]

Here shall come forth a rod out of the root of Jesse, and a flower shall rise up out of his root. And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him: the spirit of wisdom, and of understanding, the spirit of counsel, and of fortitude, the spirit of knowledge, and of godliness.

\text{Which let be ended thus, Thus saith.} Similarly in the iiij. and third Lessons.

\text{R.} The Angel Gabriel was sent. \text{as above iiij.} 52.
Lesson 2.  [Isaiah 11. 1-5.]

He shall not judge according to the sight of the eyes, nor reprove according to the hearing of the ears. But he shall judge the poor with justice, and shall reprove with equity for the meek for the earth: and he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall slay the wicked. And justice shall be the girdle of his loins: and faith the girdle of his reins. Thus saith.

R?.  Hail Mary.  as above. iii. 56.

Lesson iii.  Isaiah. 7.  [10-15.]

The Lord spoke to Achaz, saying, Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God either unto the depth of hell, or unto the height above. And Achaz said: I will not ask, an I will not tempt the Lord. And he said, Hear ye therefore, O house of David: Is it a small thing for you to be grievous to men, that you are grievous to my God also? Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign. Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and his name shall be called Emmanuel. He shall eat butter and honey, that he may know to refuse evil, and to choose the good.  [Thus saith.]

R?.  Receive the Word. as above. v. 57.

And let these Lessons together with the aforesaid Responsories of Saint Mary be said daily throughout Advent, except when the Full Service of Saint Mary is observed.

Te Deum. should not be said throughout the whole of Advent.

Before Lauds.

V.  Holy Mother of God, [ever-Virgin Mary.
R?.  Intercede for us to the Lord our God].

Ps. Benedictus. [64].

Prayer. Grant us thy servants. 23. Which ends thus. Through Christ our Lord. as is indicated above at Vespers.

And let Memorials be made of the Holy Ghost, and of the Saint of the Church, and of Relics, and of All Saints, and of Peace : as [is indicated] 257 above at Vespers. 23.

Daily throughout the whole year Vespers and Matins of Saint Mary are said in Quire, except on Double Feasts and except on the Vigil of the Nativity of the Lord, and from then until the Octave Day of Saint Stephen, and not on the Vigil of the Epiphany; and from Maundy Thursday until the morrow of the Octave Day of Easter, and during the week of Pentecost, and during the Octave of the Dedication of the Church. And except when a Memorial of Saint Mary is made at Vespers of the day with the Antiphon Under thy protection.

The other Hours, namely Prime, Terce, Sext, and None, and also Compline are not said in Quire.

Whenever Matins of Saint Mary is said on a feria in Quire, then the Hours of the same, namely Prime, Terce, Sext, and None, are said before the beginning of the Mass of Saint Mary, in the Chapel of the same 258 by the Officiant of that Mass together with the other Vicars who are required to take part [ : and before each of these Hours Ave Maria. [5]. should be said privately while kneeling]. 259

[Compline of the same is always said outside of Quire.] 260
[At Prime.]

At Prime and at all the other Hours throughout the whole year when the Full Service of Saint Mary is not sung, this Hymn is said this way thus. 261

Ps. Give bountifully to thy servant. Gloria Patri. (cxvii. iij.) [112].

Let the preceding Psalms be sung at Prime in the aforementioned way on all Sundays during the whole of Advent, [except on the Vigil of the Nativity of the Lord when it falls on a Sunday : then are sung Ps. Save me, O God. (cxvii.) Ps. Blessed are the undefiled in the way. (cxvii. j.) and the other Psalms that follow. They should also be sung from Domine ne in ira. until Easter and from Deus omnium. until the Advent of the Lord when the service is of the Sunday. Nevertheless from lxx. until Easter let be sung Ps. The Lord hath reigned. (xcij.) [305]. instead of Ps. Give praise to the Lord. (cxvii.) [276]

[Nevertheless]277 whenever the Ps. O God, my God, look upon me. (xxf.) is sung with the rest of the Psalms at Prime, then on this Psalm Quicunque vult. this Antiphon Thee, God, the Father unbegotten. [115]. is sung [and the rest, as is plainly indicated in the Psalter].278

But on the other simple Sundays throughout the year, and on all Semi-Double Feasts, whether of ix. Lessons or of iij. with ruling of the Choir, and on Octave Days, and during Octaves when the Choir is ruled, and on Commemorations of Saint Mary, and on the Feast of the Place : except when these Feasts fall within the Octave of the Holy Trinity, this Antiphon Thee they justly praise. [115]. is sung on the Psalm Quicunque vult.

On all Double Feasts throughout the year outside of Easter-week and outside the week of the Holy Trinity, this Antiphon Thanksbe to thee, O God. [115]. is sung on the Psalm Quicunque vult.

On all ferias throughout the year when the feria is observed : and on Feasts of iij. This order of Memorials of Saint Mary at j. Vespers and at Matins and at ij. Vespers of this Sunday is observed throughout the whole of Advent on Sundays and on Feasts of ix. Lessons. And also on Commemorations of the Feast of the Place at Matins and at First Vespers only where the Church is not dedicated to Saint Mary: except when the Antiphon Blessed art thou, Mary. is sung on the Ps. Magnificat. then at the Memorial of Saint Mary is sung the Antiphon Fear not, Mary. 93. only if the morrow be free from a Feast with ruling of the Choir, or when the Antiphon O Wisdom. is to be begun on a Sunday: then indeed the Antiphon Hail Mary. 19. is sung at both Vespers of that Sunday at the Memorial of Saint Mary.

Then let Vespers of Saint Mary be said in the aforesaid way, and afterwards let the Vigil of the Dead be said, namely Placebo. and Dirige. through to Lauds only, and the rest XX. [and this immediately after Vespers of Saint Mary, before Compline of the day.]
Moreover, Vigils of the Dead should be said daily with the Mass on the morrow in Chapter, except at First Vespers of Feasts of ix. Lessons, until the Vigil of the Nativity of the Lord, [except on Feasts of ix. Lessons and on Commemorations,] and from the morrow of the Octave of the Epiphany until the Tuesday before Easter. And on the same Tuesday Vigils of the Dead is made with ix. Lessons in convent and with the Mass [of the Dead] on the morrow, except if any Double Feast should impede, or fall on the very Wednesday, and then the aforesaid service should be made on any preceding day of the same week that may be unoccupied, evidently on the Sunday or on the Monday, and thus the Service of the Dead should be fulfilled until the Octave of Easter unless it happens that a body shall be present at hand. However, after the Octave of Easter the Service of the Dead is not made in convent, unless it happen [by chance] that a body shall be present or the day of the Anniversary or the Tricennial, until the morrow of the Holy Trinity. However, on the morrow of the Holy Trinity and from then Vigils of the Dead should be made daily until the Advent of the Lord, except within the Octaves and on the Octaves of Corpus Christi, the Visitation, the Assumption, and the Nativity of Blessed Mary, the Dedication of the Church and the Name of Jesus.

To be sure, a Canon having died, it is established that for thirty days obsequies are made in convent, and a Trental [celebrated] separately by each Priest: however [for] others of whatever rank let them recite twenty Psalters, and let his anniversary be celebrated privately by each [Priest] in his week.

However Vigils of the Dead ought be omitted throughout the whole year on Double Feasts, on First and Second Vespers and on the Octave Day of the Epiphany and other Octaves when the Hymn O Saviour of the world. is sung, unless a body shall be present: also on all other Feasts of ix. Lessons, and on Feasts of iij. Lessons, and on Octaves in which the Choir is ruled, and on Sundays only at First Vespers. It should be likewise on Commemorations of Saint Mary and the Feast of the Place.

Moreover, Vigils of the Dead should be made with ix. Psalms and ix. Antiphons and ix. Lessons whenever a body is present at hand, or when the day of the Anniversary or the Trental occurs, except in Eastertide. However in Eastertide are said three Psalms and three Lessons with three Antiphons on the Psalms before the Lessons, no matter which Nocturn is said, and all the Antiphons with their Psalms at Vespers, of course Placebo. and let [all] the Antiphons on the Psalms be said at Lauds.
And it is understood that whenever the Antiphon immediately follows the Ps. I have loved. (cxiv.) then the final Verse of the same Psalm is not said, because it is the same as the Antiphon I will please.

However, after the Octave of Easter, on no matter what feria the Office of the Dead is begun, it should be begun at the first Nocturn, and the [two] following Nocturns should be completed in the same week, if that can be done, but whether it can be done or not, thereafter the order should be maintained not of the Nocturns but of the ferias in this season, just as it is observed at other times : in such a way that whenever a service is made for a body that is present, whether it be made either on the Anniversary or on the Trentals of Bishops in the aforesaid time, always are said the Antiphons, Psalms, Versicles, Lessons, and two Responsories of the First Nocturn.

It is also understood that in Eastertide the third Responsory is always Deliver me, O Lord, from death eternal. with these three Verses, namely Ah, that day. V. What, therefore, shall I most wretched. V. Now, O Christ, we beseech thee. And whenever this aforesaid Responsory Deliver me, O Lord. is sung, it should always be begun again by the Clerks who sang the Responsorial Verse, whenever a body is present, and on the Anniversaries and the Trental Anniversaries of Bishops and of the four principal persons, namely Deans, Cantors, Chancellors and Treasurers, and on All Souls' Day after the final repetition of When thou shalt come. [However, on all other Vigils of the Dead when this aforesaid Responsory is sung, it should be repeated by the Choir after the final Verse.]

On the anniversaries of the death of Bishops, [however,] and whenever a body is present, and on All Souls' Day, the iiij. vij. and ix. Responsories should be repeated by those Clerks who have sung the Verses of the Responsories.

In the daily Offices of the Dead, that is when a body is not present or Anniversary or Trental is not kept : then the Vigils of the Dead take place with only three Lessons, and ix. Psalms, and only one Ant. on all the Psalms at Vespers, which is I will please. and with this [single] Ant. [namely] Direct, O Lord. on all the Psalms before the Lessons. And then always before the Lessons is said this Versicle Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me. Response Look down, O Lord, to help me. All the Lessons should be read in the Second Form, and each Responsory Verse should be said by the same Lector, so that the first and third Lessons are read from the Choir Side, and the second Lesson from the other side of the Choir.

However at Lauds this single Ant. is said on the Psalms The bones which thou hast broken shall rejoice in the Lord. 510. And all this should be said without note, immediately after Vespers of the day and of Saint Mary, and before Compline of the day.
Rubrics of the Office of the Dead.

Now in reading the Lessons and saying the Responsories the order of the ferias should be preserved: to be sure on Sunday and Wednesday the Lessons and Responsories of the First Nocturn, and on Monday and Thursday the Lessons and Responsories of the Second Nocturn, and on Tuesday and Friday the Lessons and Responsories of the Third Nocturn, in such a way that always on Tuesday and Friday the third Responsory is Deliver me, O Lord, from the ways of hell. 509.

In the usual Offices of the Dead with ix. Psalms and iii. Lessons, the [third] Responsory should never be repeated.

However it should be noted that whenever a body is present or the day of the Anniversary or the day of the Trental occurs: throughout the whole year the Commendation of Souls is sung with note immediately after Prime and before the Mass of the Chapter for the Dead. On the Psalms the Antiphon should [always] be begun by one Clerk of the Superior Grade this way.

Rubrics of the Office of the Dead.

[Prayer.]

O thee, O Lord, we commend the souls of thy servants and handmaids, and all the faithful departed: that [being dead to the world may they live unto thee: and those sins which they have committed through the frailty which besets human life, do thou wipe away by thy pardon in thy most merciful fatherly love. Through Christ our Lord. [R.} Amen.

Indeed in the Church of Sarum, whether a body be present or not, the Commendation is never said differently than this aforesaid Commendation. And it should always be said seated until the Antiphon.

From All Souls’ Day until Tuesday after Easter, Placebo. and Dirige. is said up to Lauds only, after Vespers of the day and of Saint Mary. However Lauds of the Dead is said after Matins of the day and of Saint Mary. Whenever the Office of the Dead is said in convent, unless a body be present, or when it is said for a Bishop [or for a Dean,] and except on All Souls’ Day, Placebo. should always be said seated until the Antiphon on the Psalm. Likewise at Lauds. At Dirige. however, the Choir is seated for the whole time, except while the Antiphon on the Psalms before the Lessons is being sung, up until the Lesson is begun. Even so the Lessons, Versicle, and Responsory should be said or read standing by those Clerks only who are designated to say them. But meanwhile the Choir should sit. However at the repetition of the ninth Responsory, after the final Verse, the Choir should stand until the beginning of the first Antiphon on the Psalms at Lauds. The Choir ought [indeed] to be prostrate on every feria, when the service is of the feria, outside Eastertide, and at Vigils of the Dead with iii. Lessons, from Placebo. after which follows the saying of Kyrie eleison. until the final Prayer be said, and at Dirige. similarly while the Pater noster. is said before the Lessons. After the Psalm Benedictus. in the same way as after the Psalm Magnificat. at Placebo.

[And this is usual throughout the whole year, that whenever there is kneeling in Choir at Vespers or at Matins of the day, then as many times as there are Offices of the Dead, even though there be ix. Lessons, except when a body be present, or if it be the Anniversary day of the deceased of that particular Church, then indeed it is not permitted that the Choir should kneel, but it should continue to stand during Placebo. until it is finished, and at each of the Nocturns at Dirige. while the Lord’s Prayer is being said before the Lessons, and at Lauds only at the Psalm Have mercy on me. (l.) and at the Versicle before the Benedictus. up until that Office of the Dead for that deceased person be completed, and for the rest of the psalmody; and at all the others it is permitted to sit.

It should be understood that at the Vigils of the Dead there is to be no prostration during Eastertide, nor at any Feast of ix. Lessons or of iij. when the Choir is ruled, nor on Commemorations of Saint Mary, or of the Saint of the Place, nor on Octave Days neither within the Octaves of the Saints.]

Whenever a body is present, and when the Office [of the Dead] is offered for a Bishop, all Clerks shall be required to stand at Placebo. for the whole time. But at Dirige. it is as on other occasions. [However] at Lauds it is similarly throughout the whole time, except from the beginning of the Psalm A Hymn, O God. (lxiv.) until the Versicle before the Psalm Benedictus.

Also at Vigils of the Dead of iij. Lessons outside of Eastertide, all the Versicles should be said by the Officiating Priest: changing neither place nor vestment. On the Anniversaries and Tricennials of Bishops of the Church of Sarum: the whole Office should proceed in the manner of a Double Feast, namely that of Saint John the Baptist, but on this occasion not changing vestment for reading or for singing.

Also, the Tablet of Lessons, Legends and Responsories to be sung is appointed as in the aforesaid Feast, except that no Responsory should be sung by three except the ninth. The third and also the vii. and ix. Responsories should be repeated by those Clerks who have sung the Verse of the Responsory.

The Lessons, moreover, should be not read in the Pulpit: but at the Quire Step at a Lectern. However let the Officiant of the Office change neither place nor vestment for saying the Prayers. Furthermore, let all the Versicles be said and responded to on the same Tone as on the three nights before Easter, [but the Response should not be answered aloud].

On all other Anniversaries and Trentals let the first Antiphon on the first Psalm at Placebo. be begun in the Superior Grade. [But] the other Antiphons should be assigned within the Second Form in order, except for the Antiphon on the Psalm Magnificat. and the j. Antiphon on the first Psalm at Dirige. and the first Antiphon at Lauds, and the Antiphon on the Psalm Benedictus. which should be assigned within the Superior Grade.

The first six Lessons should be read [by those] in the Second Form, changing neither their place nor vestment; also, the Responsorial Verses should be sung by the same Lectors. The seventh Lesson together with its Responsorial Verse following next should be assigned in the aforementioned way to the Superior Grade: in such a way that the ix. Responsory is sung by two of the Superior Grade at the Quire Step without changing vestment, with its three Verses. However all the Verses should be sung by some Priest in the Superior Grade on the same Tone as on the three nights before Easter, changing neither place nor vestment, or by the Officiant. And let the Choir respond in the aforementioned way.

However, when the Office of the Dead is made for a body present but not for a Canon, let all the Antiphons be assigned to the Superior Grade and then to the Second Form in the aforementioned way. The first three Lessons with their Responsories in the Second Form, the fourth and thenceforth in the Superior Grade. Each Responsory should be sung by two, and their Verses, turned towards the head of the dead body at the East, with unchanged vestment. However the final Responsory should be sung by three, with repetition: in the aforesaid place and vestment: in such a way that it is begun by the same singers. Each of the Verses is sung in that same place by two boys: without changing vestment, on the same Tone as on the three nights before Easter: as has now often been said before [this way].

\[\text{V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.}\]

Let it not be responded to audibly when it is sung by two.

\[\text{R. And may light perpetual shine upon them.}\]

[The Officiant, however, in saying the Prayers, changes neither place nor vestment: if the body be that of any Canon. The service should be made in the same way on the Anniversary of a Bishop of the same Church.] And it should be understood that in ceremonies where a body is present the body is not censed at the Psalm Magnificat. or at the Psalm Benedictus. unless the body be that of a King, Bishop, Duke, Count, or Baron, but when the body is carried from the Church:
then, at the entry gate of the Cemetery it should be sprinkled with Holy Water: and afterwards censed. But if the body be that of any Canon: the service is made in the same way as on the Anniversaries of Bishops of the same place or of the same Church.

207 In AS:10. 'datum est ei regnum et' appears a third lower. 1519:10v. begins thus:

\[ \text{A- spícien- é-bam} \]

In 1519:10v. the B at 'est' suggests that the previous B at 'datum' is natural; in BL.-52359:4v. 'datum est' appears with no flat. 1531:3v. has 'Potestas ejus patétas'.

208 SB:xxiii.
209 US-II:9. (antiquum ordinale) omits V. Glória. It is unusual that the V. ends on B, followed by the R. resuming on F, a tritone below. In NR:111. (after Codex Hartker:16) the R. resumes at 'ecce concípies', avoiding the dissonant interval.
Notes.

210 In 1519-P:13r. B♭ is implied by the use of the F-clef for 'enim éxiet', but B♮ is implied by the use of the C-clef for 'enim salvum'.

211 In AS:pl. E. no neume appears for the third syllable of 'concipiet'. 1519-P:13v. and 14v. have no flats.

212 In 1519-P:17r. has no B♭. In 1519-P:14v. and 17r. 'Oriétur' is set F.EFD.EC.F.

214 In 1519-P:11v. and 12v. 'humilitátus' is set GF.G.AC.CCBAG.CD. 1519-P:12r. does not indicate the point of return after 'Gloria Patri' explicitly, but does so implicitly through capitalization of 'Configurátum'.

215 It would appear that the R♭. Véniet ut salvet. is to be said silently. In USkII:9, the R♭. is omitted.

216 AS:pl. shows no flat at 'muliéræ'. At 'mater', AS has EF.F. 1519-12r. ends 'intácta' on FE. SB:xxv has '... páries et hóminem : concípies et páries Deum páriter et Hóminem. Ut ...'.

217 In 1519:12r. 'humilitátus' is set G.F.G.AC.CCBAG.CD. 1519:12v. does not indicate the point of return after 'Gloria Patri' explicitly, but does so implicitly through capitalization of 'Configurátum'.

218 In 1519-P:19r. 'Dóminus' is set E.D.C. 1519-P:19r. uses B♭ for 'omni oratióne'. But AS:pl. G changes from B♭-clef to C-clef here. SB:xxvi. has '... ómnibus homínibus : Dóminus ...'.

219 In 1519:12v. 'fínibus' is set C.C.BBA.

220 In 1519:12r. 'David' is set C.BC.

221 In 1519:13r. 'David' is set C.BC.

222 US-II:10.

223 1519:14r.

224 AS 13. begins DBDF.

225 1519:13r. has: et ipse re-no-vá-bit Hie-rú-sa-lem.
Notes.

238 AS:pl. d. and HS:3v. begin the second phrase GA.B.C. in each verse. HS:4r. shows 'Amen' as GA.FEF. In stanza 1 1519:14v. shows the extra syllable thus.

Ém

239 AS:14. does not indicate B♭ at 'Gábriel'.

240 1519:15r.

241 1519:15r. omits 'sequente'.

242 'si aliquando', 1519:15r.

243 1519:15r.

244 1519:15r.

245 1519:15r.

246 While no indication of the 'Altera.' repeat appears in the Breviary, this format is clearly indicated in the Sarum Hours.

247 1519:15r.

248 'etiam', 1519:15v.

249 1519:15v.

250 1519:15v. 'Many books hold to the contrary, and falsely.' Crede Michi (1435). [SB:xxxiv.]

251 1519:15v.

252 'is not observed', 1531:6r. 'Requirent hec tria Responsoria in historia hujus dominice.' 1519:15v.

253 SB-S:770.

254 SB:xxxvi.

255 1519:15v. omits 'Et'.

256 Thus far I have found the full V. and R. only in SB-S:246. and 699.

Notes.

271 1519:16v. omits ‘In lábiis.’
272 1519:16r.
273 1519:16r. The antiphon, versicle and prayer do not appear in the Breviary, but are found in the Processionale and in the Books of Hours.
274 HS:71v.
275 While this melody is labelled as mode II (transposed to A), it may also be understood as mode I, ending on the co-final. In 1519-P:28. the second phrase begins G A B C.
276 In this section US-II:221 ff. gathers many rubrics pertaining to Prime throughout the year. In this edition these rubrics find their place in the Psalter and throughout the Temporale.
277 1519:16r.
278 1519:16r.
279 'This may be a misprint for 'Responsories."
280 'The Responsory should be sung by a single boy this way'. US-II:226.
281 In US-II:lxxix. 'liberándum' begins with a single note, E; 'salvi' is set E.D. 1519:16v. follows US-II:lxxix. but is set a fifth higher, in the C-clef. In AS:15 'Deus virtútem' is set D.C D.E.E.
282 'in dominicis lxx. vel l.' 1519:16v.

292 1519:17r.
293 1519:17r. omits 'regum'.
294 1519:17r. omits 'paréntum'.
295 In 1519-P:141v. 'sécula' is set G.G.G.
296 In 1519-P:144r. 'Dómino' is set GA.A.G.
298 1519:17r.
299 1519:17r.
300 1519:17v.
301 1519:17v.
302 1519:17v.
303 SB:xliv. has 'que credidísti : quáñiam perficiéntur'.
304 'Jesse' is missing in SB:xliv; it appears in 1531:7r.
Notes.

305 US-II:228.

306 The Office of the Dead appears in Fasciculus A-15.

307 1519:17v.

308 1519:17v.

309 1519:18r.

310 1519:18r. generally uses 'trigentalibus' for 'tricennalibus'. In any case, the term refers to a period of thirty days.

311 1519:18r. lists only Assumption, Nativity of the blessed Virgin, and Dedication of the Church, feasts that pre-date Corpus Christi and the Name of Jesus.

312 It seems that 'triginta psalteria' which appears here in the Breviary is a corruption of 'triginta late' as found in the Customary. i.e. thirty Masses.
