Second Lesson. (Jer. j. 4.)

AND the word of the Lord came to me, saying : Before I formed thee in the bowels of thy mother, I knew thee : and before thou camest forth out of the womb, I sanctified thee, and made thee a prophet unto the nations. And said I, Ah, ah, ah, Lord God : behold, I cannot speak, for I am a child. And the Lord said to me : Say not : I am a child : for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee : and whatsoever I shall command thee, thou shalt speak. Be not afraid at their presence : for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the Lord. And the Lord put forth his hand, and touched my mouth : and the Lord said to me : Behold I have given my words in thy mouth : lo, I have set thee this day over the nations, and

And the Lord said to me : Thou hast seen well : for I will watch over my word to perform it. And the word of the Lord came to me a second time, saying : What seest thou ? I see a boiling cauldron, and the face thereof from the face of the north. And the Lord said to me : From the north shall an evil break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land. For behold I will call together all the families of the kingdoms of the north : saith the Lord : and they shall come, and shall set every one his throne in the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and upon all the walls thereof round about, and upon all the cities of Juda. And I will pronounce my judgments against them, touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have sacrificed to strange gods, and have adored the work of their own hands. Thus saith.

Middle Lessons from a Sermon of Blessed John, Bishop.

Lesson iiij.

Great <is the> merit of most holy Jeremias : great <is> the divine gift²² bestowed upon him. Great I say is the merit of Jeremias which is deserved before <he is> born, is sanctified before <he is> sent forth : <he> is appointed to become a master in prophecy before the beginning of the world. His merits are told : but the duties were not yet exercised by him. The gifts are told : nor yet are the causes of the gifts treated. Preferment is declared : and the business of preferment is not yet revealed. Be thou (saith the Lord) unwilling to think, Jeremias, that today I establish thee a prophet : or that I now firstly send <thee> forth for the correcting of that nations. Long ago indeed, long ago wert thou esteemed and well known to me : long ago <wert thou> consecrated and worthy, long ago <wert thou> established a prophet to the peoples. Foreknowledge itself hath shewn thee fitting to me, and suitable. In thee I have appointed foreboding to be prophesied : and faith to be proclaimed. In thee I have established the duties of a prophet and have preferred the announcing of my disposition to them. Yet no one should deter thee : no one should cause vain fear in thee. Between myself and themselves thou shalt be an intermediary : who shalt bear orders, shalt show forth precepts, shall declare commandments. Neither shalt thou be able to leave unsaid what I do speak, nor being silent shouldst thou be able to cause ruin : which being declared shalt be able to bestow salvation. What is <this> (he saith) O Ruler, O Lord ? Why dost thou impose so much oppressive weight on a youth ? Why for correcting the people designatest thou forth <one of> a tender age ? Why entrustest thou unto me such great work of prophesying ? For I am not suited to carry <it> out, and I am oppressed by my state, I am hindered in speech : I am afeared of the duty. Be thou unwilling, saith the Lord, to say, Because I am a youth. For I have wanted this to be accomplished through thee. I have instructed this to be fulfilled through thee : that thou the younger should reproach the older, and the ineloquent the eloquent. Worth, merit, not age appoint thee to me : rightful sanctity not quality of speech claimeth thee. For with me neither is youth hindered, nor age praised : but act and life and dignity of manners is approved. What I love in thee : I find not in another. I see many eloquent <ones> : but I am unable to find honest <ones>. I discern countless older <ones> : but all that I look upon are degenerate. Why send I thee to nations and peoples : that the crooked should be made straight, the digressing should return, the contemptuous should obey ? Nor shalt thou be able to wish for anything as I wish : for this reason wert thou beloved : while thou effecteth what I long for. But thou.

Lesson v.

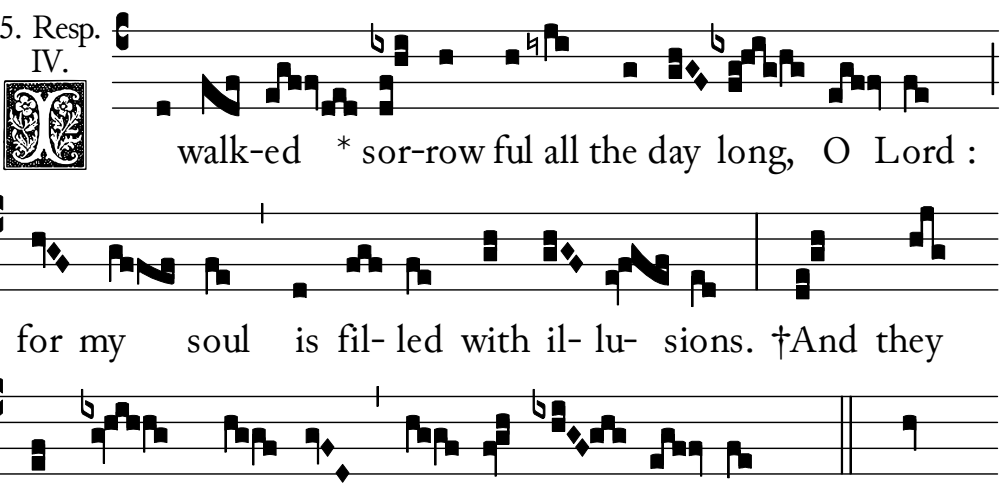

Jeremias proceedeth to the people : constantly proclaiming the commands of the Lord. He speaketh to the people, he approacheth all : he maketh known the words of the Lord. Thus (he saith) saith the Lord : What offense have your fathers found in me, that they withdraw from me ? Alas. The Lord is spoken of with contempt. He wisheth indeed judgement to be made between themselves and himself : he wisheth authors of offenses to be uncovered, he wisheth the cause of sin and the despised matter to be laid bare. Why, he saith, do you condemn me ? Why do you abandon me with sacriligious mind ? If ever I put forth contraries to you, if I denied kindnesses, if I gave offense to you, failing in anything : declare it. If to be sure I have supplied all which ye have desired, nor at any time either have I taken away comforts or denied kindnesses to you : wherefore have I injured you with prosperity, wherefore have I offended with gifts, wherefore I have presented deserters with kindnesses ? Why, in the end, repay ye bad things to him for good things ? Why bestow ye contraries for kindnesses ? Can it be either that when you serve it is offensive, or when you turn away it is vindicated ? Indeed I think serving with free will better than with coercion. Better <one> correct the uninjured : than convert the injured with censure. Better ye recall them to usefulness : than torture with punishment. Because you pressed the Egyptians, I have destroyed Pharaoh, I have overthrown the Amorites : I have lead you into the land of promise. The nations never forsake their gods, never <do they> change : never do they pass over to an alien worship. Insofar as whatever a nation establisheth to worship : this one feareth, this one trembleth, this one ungently defendeth, this one is venerated and doth receive. He continueth to worship what he cherisheth, lest he may be said to go astray with changed rite : while he forsaketh what he hath cherished. That one defendeth his error : and thou Israelite upholdeth not thy truth. That one persevereth in falsehood : and thou perseverest not in truth. That one venerateth and cherisheth an idol : and thou art opposed and despisest God. That one defendeth his camps : thou offendest so great an emperour when thou desertest. Alas. An idol granteth nothing, and is cherished : God bestoweth all, and is avoided by profane people. But thou, O Lord.

Lesson vj.

IF any of the Israelites themselves might say to thee : I always cherish what I have cherished : I defend what I have defended, what I have established to be revered I have never abandoned. Why dost thou desert thine ? Why not follow my example : that thus thou mightest contend to retain thine, as thou observest to retain mine ? Or why dost thou who cherished the Lord desert, with me, an image thou shalt discern never to have deserted ? Or wherefore shalt thou not be able to be provoked by my example, when with thine I may be bound to be provoked ? How shalt thou be able to draw protection of health, how shalt thou be able to find vindication, which neither surpresseth another's, nor defendeth thine, nor refuteth culprits, nor showeth thyself innocent ? Return, I beseech <thee>, return to God. Return, I say, to God : because beside him thou shalt not be able to find another. Return to him whom thou hast unworthily offended : return to him whom thou hast cruelly [112v.] deserted. Return to him, which on that account putteth forward a plea, that he should cleanse, which on that account chideth that he should save : which on that account contriveth beforehand lest he should condemn, saying, What fault have your fathers found in me, that they have withdrawn from me ? O revered goodness of God, O detested defiance of the nations. Tell thou (saith the Lord) who²³ may have sinned, or who may have offended ? Why shall I be scorned by you and forsaken ? Why after such kindnesses should I not be acknowledged, nor after countless gifts be attended to by all of you ? Either declare my offence, or do away with the despicable penalty : or reveal me to have been lacking in something to you, or shew ye to have obeyed myself. What dost thou, O man ? What distresseth <thee> ? What shalt thou be able to respond, who hast been accused ? Thou art provoked by God who requesteth of thee causes of his offense : who seeketh out the contemptible affairs of thine, who in vain percieveth thee to regard his kindnesses. Because of him thou hast not what thou seekest : now judge of thyself what thou be merited. Acknowledge then, acknowledge that which is true, both the Lord not to have been remiss in his greatness, and thyself, unworthy and impious, to have despised. For confession of guilt : is pardon of the despiser. Let him quickly be persuaded that he might pardon : who for this <purpose> commandeth that he might defend. The Lord condemneth thee not if thou returnest : and if thou hadst disdained when thou departedst. He despiseth not thee returning :

which sometime hath terrified a deserter. Thy return shall not be spurned : which sheweth that thou mayst return their affections. Return ye, he saith, to me : and I shall return to you. And again, I desire not the death of a sinner : but that he should be turned back and live. He desireth to forgive, he desireth to have mercy : he anticipated prayers of the deserter when he was encouraged that the man which deserted should be returned. The deserted inviteth deserters, the contemptible recalleth contemptibles : he carrieth in offensive culprits that he may forgive. Why should the deserter return, the contemptible serve, the faithful exhibit faith : that the heavenly Emperor should bestow indulgence to the deserter and favour to the contemptible, and glory to the faithful : who liveth and reigneth, God, world without end, amen. But thou.

¶ [The Gospel]²⁵ According to John. viij. (46-59.) [Lesson vij.]

AT that time. Jesus said unto the multitude of the Jews and the chief Priests, Which of you shall convince me of sin ? If I say the truth to you, why do you not believe me ? He that is of God, heareth the words of God. And that which followeth.

*Homily of Blessed Gregory, Pope. (18.)*²⁶

COnsider, dearly beloved brethren, the meekness of God. He had come to release sins : and said, Which of you shall convince me of sin ? He did not disdain to shew by reason that he was not a sinner : who by the power of <his> divinity was able to pardon sinners. But what he subjoined is very terrible, He that is of God, heareth the words of God. Therefore you hear them not, because you are not of God. For if one who is of God heareth the words of God : and one who is not is not able to hear the words of God : let each ask himself if he perceiveth the words of God in the ear of the heart, and let him understand whence he is. Truth commandeth <us> to desire the heavenly homeland, to expunge carnal desires, to turn from the glory of the world : to not seek after another's property, to give bountifully of one's own. Let each of you consider by himself, if this voice of God hath grown strong in the ear of his heart : and if he now recognizeth this voice seeing that it be from God.

Lesson viij.

[113r.] FOR there be some which deign not to hear the precepts of God with the ears of the body. And there be some which indeed perceive them with the ears of the body : but do not embrace <them> with the desire of the mind. And there be some which freely accept the words of God : so that they even feel moved to tears : but after the time of tears they return to iniquity. These surely do not hear the words of God : which disdain to exercise them in <their> deeds.

Therefore recall your life, dearly beloved, before the mind's eye, and by lofty contemplations be ye much afraid of this which soundeth from the mouth of Truth. Therefore you hear them not, because you are not of God. But this which Truth speaketh concerning reprobates : the reprobates themselves shew by their unjust works. For there followeth, The Jews therefore answered, and said to him : Do not we say well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil ?

HAVING then received so much abuse : let us hear what the Lord replied. I have not a devil : but I honour my Father, and you have dishonoured me. For indeed Samaritan, is interpreted guardian, and he is truly a guardian, of which the Psalmist saith, Unless the Lord keep the city, he watcheth in vain that keepeth it : and to whom through Isaiah he saith, Watchman, what of the night ? watchman, what of the night ? : the Lord refused to answer, I am not a Samaritan, but <said>, I have not a devil. Two things were brought to him. One he denied : and the other he assented to with silence. For the guardian of the human race had come. And if he had said that he was not a Samaritan : he would have denied himself to be a guardian. But he was silent about what he recognized : and he patiently spurned what he had heard falsely, saying, I have not a devil. In which words what other is confounded than our pride :

Lesson j. Jer. j. (17.)

 Hou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak to them all that I command thee. Be not afraid at their presence : for I will make thee not to fear their countenance. For behold I have made thee this day a fortified city, and a pillar of iron, and a wall of brass, over all the land, to the kings of Juda, to the princes thereof, and to the priests, and to the people of the land. And they shall fight against thee, and shall not prevail : for I am with thee, saith the Lord, to deliver thee.

(Jer. ij.) And the word of the Lord came to me, saying : Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying : Thus saith the Lord : I have remembered thee, pitying thy soul, pitying thy youth, and the love of thy espousals, when thou followedst me in the desert, in a land that is not sown. Israel is holy to the Lord, the first fruits of his increase : all they that devour him offend : evils shall come upon them, saith the Lord. Thus saith.

Lesson ij. (Jer. ij. 4.)

Hear ye ye the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob, and all ye families of the house of Israel. Thus saith the Lord : What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain ? And they have not said : [114r.] Where is the Lord, that made us come up out of the land of Egypt ? that led us through the desert, through a land uninhabited and unpassable, through a land of drought, and the image of death, through a land wherein no man walked, nor any man dwelt ? And I brought you into the land of Carmel, to eat the fruit thereof, and the best things thereof : and when ye entered in, you defiled my land, and made my inheritance an abomination. Thus saith.

Third Lesson. (Jer. ij. 8.)

THE priests did not say : Where is the Lord ? and they that held the law knew me not, and the pastors transgressed against me : and the prophets prophesied in Baal, and followed idols. Therefore will I yet contend in judgment with you, saith the Lord, and I will plead with your children. Pass over to the isles of Cethim, and see : and send into Cedar, and consider diligently : and see if there hath been done any thing like this. If a nation hath changed their gods, and indeed they are not gods: but my people have changed their glory into an idol. Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and ye gates thereof, be very desolate, saith the Lord. For my people have done two evils. They have forsaken me, the fountain of living water, and have digged to themselves cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

First Lesson. (Jer. ij. 14.)

IS Israel a bondman, or a homeborn slave ? why then is he become prey ? The lions have roared upon him, and have made a noise, they have made his land a wilderness : his cities are burnt down and there is none to dwell in them. The children also of Memphis, and of Taphnes have deflowered thee, even to the crown of the head.
Hath not this been done to thee,

because thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God at that time, when he led thee by the way ? And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the troubled water ? And what hast thou to do with the way of the Assyrians, to drink the water of the river ? Thy own wickedness shall reprove thee, and thy apostasy shall rebuke thee. Thus saith the Lord.

Second Lesson. (Jer. ij. 19.)

Now thou, and see that it is an evil and a bitter thing for thee, to have left the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not with thee, saith the Lord the God of hosts. Of old time thou hast broken my yoke, thou hast burst my bands, and thou saidst :

I will not serve. For on every high hill, and under every green tree thou didst prostitute thyself. Yet I planted thee a chosen vineyard, all true seed :
how then art thou turned unto me into that which is good for nothing, O strange vineyard ? Though thou wash thyself with nitre, and multiply to thyself the herb borith, thou art stained in thy iniquity before me, saith the Lord God. Thus saith.

Third Lesson. (Jer. ij. 23.)

How canst thou say : I am not polluted, and I have not walked after Baalim ? see thy ways in the valley, know what thou hast done : as a swift runner pursuing his course. A wild ass accustomed to the wilderness in the desire of his heart, snuffed up the wind of his love : none shall turn her away : all that seek her shall not fail : in her monthly filth they shall find her. Keep thy foot from being bare, and thy throat from thirst. But thou saidst : I have lost all hope, I will not do it : for I have loved strangers, and I will walk after them.

Thus saith.

[At Matins.]

First Lesson. Jer. ij. (26.)

S the thief is confounded when he is taken, so is the house of Israel confounded, they and their kings, their princes and their priests, and their prophets. Saying to a stock : Thou art my father : and to a stone : thou hast begotten me : they have turned their back to me, and not their face : and in the time of their affliction they will say : Arise, and deliver us. Where are the gods, whom thou hast made thee ?

let them arise and deliver thee in the time of thy affliction : for according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Juda. Why will you contend with me in judgment ? you have all forsaken me, saith the Lord. In vain have I struck your children, they have not received correction : your sword hath devoured your prophets, your generation is like a ravaging lion. See ye the word of the Lord. Thus saith.

Second Lesson. (Jer. ij. 31.)

AM I become a wilderness to Israel, or a lateward springing land ? why then have my people said : We are revolted, we will come to thee no more. Will a virgin forget her ornament, or a bride her stomacher ? but my people hath forgotten me days without number. Why dost thou endeavor to shew thy way good to seek my love, thou who has also taught thy malices to be thy ways, And in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor and innocent ? not in ditches have I found them, but in all places, which I mentioned before. And thou hast said : I am without sin and am innocent : and therefore let thy anger be turned away from me. Thus saith.

Lesson iij. (Jer. ij. 35.)

BEhold, I will contend with thee in judgment, because thou hast said : I have not sinned. How exceeding base art thou become, going the same ways over again ! and thou shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria. For from thence thou shalt go, and thy hand shall be upon thy head : for the Lord hath destroyed thy trust, and thou shalt have nothing prosperous therein.

It is commonly said : If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and marry another man, shall he return to her any more ? shall not that woman be polluted, and defiled ? but thou hast prostituted thyself to many lovers : nevertheless return to me, saith the Lord, and I will receive thee. Lift up thy eyes on high : and see where thou hast not prostituted thyself. Thus saith. (Jer. iij.)

Lesson j. Jer. iij. (2.)

THOU didst sit in the ways, waiting for them as a robber in the wilderness : and thou hast polluted the land with thy fornications, and with thy wickedness. Therefore the showers were withholden, and there was no lateward rain : thou hadst a harlot's forehead, thou wouldst not blush. Therefore at least at this time call to me : Thou art my father, the guide of my virginity : wilt thou be angry for ever, or wilt thou continue until the end ? Behold, thou hast spoken, and hast done evil things, and hast been able. Thus saith the Lord God.

Lesson ij. (Jer. iij. 6.)

AND the Lord said to me in the days of king Josias: Hast thou seen what rebellious Israel hath done ? she hath gone out of herself upon every high mountain, and under every green tree, and hath played the harlot there. And when she had done all these things, I said : Return to me, and she did not return. And her treacherous sister Juda saw, that because the rebellious Israel had played the harlot, I had put her away, and had given her a bill of divorce : yet her treacherous sister Juda was not afraid, but went and played the harlot also herself. And by the facility of her fornication she defiled the land, and played the harlot with stones and with stocks. And after all this, her treacherous sister Juda hath not returned to me with her whole heart, but with falsehood, saith the Lord.

Lesson iij. (Jer. iij. 11.)

AND the Lord said to me : The rebellious Israel hath justified her soul, in comparison of the treacherous Juda. Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and thou shalt say : Return, O rebellious Israel, saith the Lord, and I will not turn away my face from you : for I am holy, saith the Lord, and I will not be angry for ever. But yet acknowledge thy iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the Lord thy God :

First Lesson. Jer. iij. (14.)

Return, O ye revolting children, saith the Lord : for I am your husband: and I will take you, one of a city, and two of a kindred, and will bring you into Sion. And I will give you pastors according to my own heart, and they shall feed you with knowledge and doctrine. And when you shall be multiplied, and increase in the land in those days, saith the Lord, they shall say no more : The ark of the covenant of the Lord :

neither shall it come upon the heart, neither shall they remember it, neither shall it be visited, neither shall that be done any more. At that time Jerusalem shall be called the throne of the Lord : and all the nations shall be gathered together to it, in the name of the Lord to Jerusalem, and they shall not walk after the perversity of their most wicked heart. Thus saith.

Lesson ij. (Jer. iij. 18.)

IN those days the house of Juda shall go to the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land which I gave to your fathers. But I said : How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a lovely land, the goodly inheritance of the armies of the Gentiles ? And I said : Thou shalt call me father and shalt cease to walk after me. But as a woman that despiseth her lover, so hath the house of Israel despised me, saith the Lord. A voice was heard in the highways, weeping and howling of the children of Israel : because they have made their way wicked, they have forgotten the Lord their God.

Lesson iij. (Jer. iij. 22.)

Return, you rebellious children, and I will heal your rebellions. Behold we come to thee : for thou art the Lord our God. In very deed the hills were liars, and the multitude of the mountains : truly in the Lord our [115v.]

[At Matins.]

First Lesson. Jer. iiij. (1.)

THOU wilt return, O Israel, saith the Lord, return to me :
if thou wilt take away thy stumblingblocks out of my sight, thou shalt not be moved. And thou shalt swear : As the Lord liveth, in truth, and in judgment, and in justice :

and the Gentiles shall bless him, and shall praise him. For thus saith the Lord to the men of Juda and Jerusalem : Break up anew your fallow ground, and sow not upon thorns : be circumcised to the Lord, and take away the foreskins of your hearts, ye men of Juda, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem : lest my indignation come forth like fire, and burn, and there be none that can quench it : because of the wickedness of your thoughts. Thus saith the Lord.

Second Lesson. (Jer. iiij. 5.)

DEclare ye in Juda, and make it heard in Jerusalem : speak, and sound with the trumpet in the land : cry aloud, and say : Assemble yourselves, and let us go into strong cities. Set up the standard in Sion. Strengthen yourselves, stay not : for I bring evil from the north, and great destruction. The lion is come up out of his den, and the robber of nations hath roused himself : he is come forth out of his place, to make thy land desolate : thy cities shall be laid waste, remaining without an inhabitant. For this gird yourselves with haircloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the Lord is not turned away from us. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord : That the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes : and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall be amazed. And I said : Alas, alas, alas, O Lord God, hast thou then deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying : You shall have peace : and behold the sword reacheth even to the soul ? Thus saith the Lord.

Third Lesson. (Jer. iv. 11.)

AT that time it shall be said to this people, and to Jerusalem : A burning wind is in the ways that are in the desert of the way of the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse. A full wind from these places shall come to me : and now I will speak my judgments with them. Behold he shall come up as a cloud, and his chariots as a tempest : his horses swifter than eagles : woe unto us, for we are laid waste. Wash thy heart from wickedness, O Jerusalem, that thou mayst be saved: how long shall hurtful thoughts abide in thee ? For a voice of one declaring from Dan, and giving notice of the idol from mount Ephraim. Say ye to the nations: Behold it is heard in Jerusalem, that guards are coming from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Juda. They are set round about her, as keepers of fields : because she hath provoked me to wrath, saith the Lord. Thy ways, and thy devices have brought these things upon thee : this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it hath touched thy heart. Thus saith.
