v. Sunday after the Pasch.

v. Sunday.

At First Vespers let all be made as on the Octave of the Pasch until the Antiphon on the Psalm Magnificat. which will be the Ant. Great and wonderful. as above on the immediately preceding Sunday on the Psalm Magnificat. Then let follow

Prayer.

God, from whom all good things proceed: grant to us, thy suppliants: that by thy inspiration we may think what is right: and by thy guiding may perform the same.

Let a Procession be made as above. On returning let be sung one of the Antiphons of Saint Mary in order as above.

At Matins.

Invitatory, Hymn, Antiphon, and Psalms, and V. as above on the Second Sunday after the Pasch.

Lesson j. [The Gospel] according to John. xvi. (23-30.)

That time. Jesus said unto his disciples, Amen, amen I say to you: if you ask the Father any thing in my name, he will give it you. And that which followeth.

A Homily of the Venerable Bede, Priest.

(7. Second Book.)

It may disturb weak hearers, how at the beginning of this reading from the Gospel the Saviour promises <his> disciples, If you ask the Father any thing in my name, he will give it you, seeing that not only do <people> like us not receive many things which they seem to ask the Father in the name of Christ: but even the apostle Paul himself, though he had asked the Lord thrice that the angel of Satan with which he was troubled might depart from him, neither was he able to obtain. But the difficulty of this question was made clear already in the ancient explanation given by the Fathers: who understood truly only those to pray in the name of the Saviour, who pray for those things which pertain to eternal salvation. Therefore they say that the Apostle did not ask in the name of the Saviour, \(<\text{when he prayed}>\) to be freed from the temptation which he had received as a protection for his humility : because if he had been freed of this, he could not have been saved, as he himself was affirming when he said, \(\text{And lest the greatness of the revelations should exalt me, there was given me a sting of my flesh, an angel of Satan, to buffet me.}\)

\[RR\] as on the preceding Sunday. 1523.

Lesson ii.

Therefore as often as in asking we are not heard, thus it shall be either because we ask \(<\text{for something}>\) contrary to the assistance of our salvation : and so the grace of his kindness is denied us by \(<\text{our}>\) merciful Father insofar as we ask unsuitably, insofar as the same is shewn to happen to the Apostle : to whom asking, thrice was given the answer, My grace is sufficient for thee ; for power is made perfect in infirmity. Or we ask for useful things and which pertain to true salvation, but by our evil living we turn away from ourselves the hearing of the just Judge : falling into that of which Solomon \(<\text{spake}>\), He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law : his prayer shall be as abomination. Or while we pray for certain sinners that they may recover their senses, and if we ask beneficially and also if we deserve to be heard of our own merit : yet their perversity standeth in the way of what me might obtain. But thou, O Lord.

Third Lesson.

It also sometimes happeneth that with solicitous prayers and devoted actions we seek what is entirely salutary, yet we do not immediately obtain what we desire : but the effect of our petition is put off to some future time. As when on bended knees we daily entreat the Father, saying, Thy kingdom come : yet we shall not be receiving this kingdom as soon as \(<\text{our}>\) prayer is finished, but at the proper time. It is understood that this is often done by the kind foresight of our Creator : that evidently the desires of our devotion may increase by deferment : and by daily increase advance more and more, until at last they grasp perfectly the joys which they seek. Concerning which it is noted, that when we pray for those who sin, and if we are unable to obtain their salvation: yet by no means are we deprived of the fruit of our prayer. For though they are not worthy to be saved: we shall nevertheless be given the reward for the love which we have expended on them. And thus in such a petition shall be fulfilled for us that promise of the Lord where he said, If you ask the Father any thing in my name: he will give it you. For we must see that he did not simply say, He will give: but He will give, he said, to you. Because if he shall not give to those for whom we pray: yet when we mercifully intercede for others going astray, he will give to us a reward for our benevolence.

_Prayer as above_. 1550.

If however a Simple Feast with Rulers of the Choir should fall on this day let it be deferred until the next vacant feria as is said above in the Octave of the Pasch. If the Feast of Saint Aldhelm should fall on this day let it be deferred until the third vacant feria: and then no Commemoration of Blessed Mary will be made in this week [: unless it be the Feast of the Place]. And when the Feast is thus deferred: then let a Memorial be made on Sunday of Saint Urban at Vespers and at Mass: and likewise on similar occasions.*
Monday in Rogationtide.

At Matins.

Invitatory, Hymn, Antiphon and Psalms and V. of that feria as indicated above. 1495.

At that time. Jesus said unto his disciples, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go to him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves, because a friend of mine is come off his journey to me, and I have not what to set before him. And that which followeth.

A Homily of the Venerable Bede, Priest.

The Saviour was asked by the disciples not only concerning the form of prayer but also the earnestness and frequency with which one might give over to praying. The friend therefore to whom he is come in middle of the night: the same is understood to be God, to whom we ought pray in the midst of tribulation, and the three loaves: that is understood to be the Trinity, by which we should seek to be consoled in the labours of this present life. The friend which cometh from his journey: the same is our soul. Which so often hath withdrawn from us: as often as it hath wandered abroad among earthly and temporal desires. But thou, O Lord.

Responsories [I will declare. R. With my whole heart. R. In the churches.] as on Monday in the preceding week. 1530.

Second Lesson.

It returneth, however, and it desireth to be refreshed by heavenly nourishment: when coming back to itself it reacheth toward heavenly and meditateth on spiritual things. Concerning him who had treated, well he addeth: there is nothing to be had to set before him. Seeing that after the darkness of ages the soul was yearning for God: nothing to think besides him, nothing to be said, nothing agreeable to be considered. Only insofar as it had recognized the greatest joy to be in contemplation of the Trinity: and it strove to come to regard this more clearly. And he from within saith, Trouble me not, the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee. The door of the friend, is the understanding of the divine word: which the Apostle prayeth to be opened to him to speak the mystery of Christ. And it is closed to him who is by condition famished of the word: who is not given to understanding. And to those which proclaimed evangelical wisdom as if distributing bread throughout the world: the children of the head of the household are already in a separate place of rest with the Lord.

Third Lesson.

And yet by praying it is brought about, that he might receive the desired understanding from God himself: even if a man should lack the wisdom through which it is preached. Yet if he shall continue knocking: I say to you, although he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend; yet, because of his importunity, he will rise, and give him as many as he needeth. And I say to you, Ask, and it shall be given you. Seek, and you shall find. Knock, and it shall be opened to you. The comparision is from the lesser. If therefore the friend of the man riseth from <his> bed, and giveth, not by friendship but compelled by weariness: how much more doth God give, who without weariness giveth bountifully what is entreated? For our Lord and Saviour desiring us to come to the joys of the heavenly kingdom: both hath taught us to entreat the same joys of him, and also hath promised that he would give these to us who are asking for them.

If however these foregoing Responsories have been sung in the preceding week and the R. Sing ye to us a hymn of the songs 1533. R. To thee, O God, I will sing a new canticle. 1534. and R. Alleluia, we have heard of it. 1535. have not been sung: then let them be sung this day: that they be not omitted.
v. Week after the Pasch.

At Lauds.

Chapter. (James v. 16.)

Confess your sins one to another: you may be saved. For the continual prayer of a just man availeth much.

Let this Chapter be said at this Matins only.

Petite et dabitur vobis. AS:265; 1519:246v; 1531:144v.

Ant. I.v.

SK and it * shall be giv-en you: seek, and you shall find: knock, and it shall be open-ed to you, al-lelu-ya. Ps. Blessed be the Lord. XX*.

Prayer.

Grant, we beseech thee, O almighty God: that we, who in our affliction put our trust in thy mercy: may by thy protection ever be defended against all adversities. Through our Lord.

Let this Prayer be said at this Matins only. To be sure, at all the other Hours: the Chapters and Prayers of the Sunday are said.

[Memorial of the Cross and of Saint Mary and of All Saints.]

If any Feast without Rulers of the Choir should fall on this day or on the Vigil of the Ascension of the Lord: let nothing be made of the Feast [except only a Memorial at Vespers and at Matins of Saint Mary which precede the Memorial of the Holy Spirit as is indicated above]. On Monday and Wednesday in Rogationtide let all of the service be of the feria: if they are free from a Feast with Rulers of the Choir, and in this week nothing will be made of the Commemoration of the Feast of the Place: unless the Feast of
v. Week after the Pasch.

the Place be that of S. Mary. 48

If however 49 a Feast with Rulers of the Choir should fall on this Monday: all will be made of the service of the Feast: with a Memorial of the fast at Matins only [before the Memorial of the Resurrection, unless a Feast of iii. Lessons be attached to it, then first let a Memorial be made of the Feast and afterwards of the feria and of the Resurrection in the Vigil of the Ascension of the Lord] 50 and let the Exposition of the Gospel, namely Which of you shall have a friend. be completely omitted this year: and after vi. 51 let the Mass of the Feast be said in Quire with Rulers of the Choir. However let the Mass of the fast and the Procession after ix. be said in the customary manner.

On this day Vespers will be of Saint Mary with a Full Service on the morrow: if it is free from a Feast with Rulers of the Choir, with no Memorial of the feria: but of any Saint of three Lessons if there be one and of the Resurrection in the customary manner.

And if a Feast with Rulers of the Choir should fall on Tuesday: then on no day during this week let a Full Service of Saint Mary be made.

Ps. My soul doth magnify. XX*.

Prayer of the Sunday. 1559.
Wednesday in the Vigil of the Ascension of the Lord.

At Matins.

Invitatory, Hymn, Antiphon and Psalms of that feria as above. 1495.

 gratuitement. The Lord is risen indeed. 1342.

At that time. Jesus lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son may glorify thee. And that which followeth.

A Sermon from the Commentary of Blessed Augustine, Bishop. (On John, Tract. 105.)

That the Son was glorified by the Father after the form of a servant, whom the Father raised from the dead, and set down at his right side: is indicated by the thing itself, and no Christian doubteth. But because he not only said, Father, glorify thy Son, but also added, that thy Son may glorify thee: it is worthy to inquire how the Father glorified the Son, when the eternal glory of the Father neither was diminished in human form, nor could be augmented in its own divine perfection, indeed in itself the glory of the Father could neither be augmented nor diminished. But amongst men without doubt it was less: when only in Judea was God known, and as yet children praised not the name of the Lord from the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same. But.

 gratis. Sing ye to us a hymn of the songs. 1533.

Second Lesson.

Gratis. Inasmuch as this was effected by the gospel of Christ, that through the Son the Father became known to the gentiles: certainly the Son also glorified the Father. But if the Son had only died and not risen: without doubt he would have neither been glorified by the Father, nor would he have glorified the Father. But now having been glorified through the resurrection by the Father: he glorifies the Father by the preaching of his resurrection. This of course is revealed by the very order of the words. Glorify, he saith, thy Son: that thy Son may glorify thee. Saying as it were, Raise me up again: that by me thou might become known to the whole world. Thereon still further expanding how the Father should be glorified by the Son, As thou hast given him, he saith, power over all flesh: that he may give eternal life to all whom thou hast given him. By all flesh he designateth all men, signifying by the part the whole: just as conversely by the superior part is signified the whole man, where the Apostle saith, Let every soul be subject to higher powers. For what doth every soul designate, except every man? Now this, insofar as power over all flesh was given to Christ by the Father: is understood to be according to his humanity. But thou, O Lord.

\( R^p:\) To thee, O God, I will sing a new canticle. 1534.

Third Lesson.

\( A:\) As then thou hast given him power, he saith, over all flesh, so may thy Son glorify thee: that is, make thee known to all flesh whom thou hast given him. For thus thou hast given: that he may give eternal life to all whom thou hast given him. Now this is eternal life (he saith): that they may know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. The <proper> order of the words is: That they may know thee and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent, as the only true God. Consequently, however, the Holy Ghost is also understood: because he is Spirit of the Father and the Son, as it were the substantial and consubstantial love of both. For the Father and the Son are not two Gods, nor are the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost three Gods: but the Trinity itself is the one only true God. Nor yet is the Father the same as the Son, nor the Son the same as the Father, nor the Holy Ghost the same as the Father or the Son: seeing that they are three <persons>, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost, but the Trinity itself is one God.

\( R^p:\) Alleluia, we have heard of it. 1535. \textit{These three Responsories are found in the} 1561.
v. Week after the Pasch.

If these three Responsories have been sung in the preceding week: and R. Let them now say. has not been sung, then is made the third R. this day Let them now say. If however all the ferial Responsories in the preceding week and Monday in Rogationtide have not been sung: then let the Responsory Let them now say. be omitted in this year: because this Responsory Let them now say. is not sung before all the ferial Responsories have been sung.

But if a Feast with Rulers of the Choir shall be celebrated on Monday in Rogationtide: then the Versicle The Lord is risen. 1331. and the R. I will declare. 1530.. R. With my whole heart. 1531. and R. It is good. 55 1539. are said this day: unless the Responsory Lead me. 1537. R. Sing ye to God. 1533. and R. In the churches. 56 1532. have not been sung in the preceding week, then let them be sung on this day, that they be not omitted, &c. [If all these ferial Responsories have been sung in the preceding week and on the feria in Rogationtide: then this day let the third Responsory be.] 57

Prayer.

Rant, we beseech thee, almighty God: that the intention of our mind may ever be directed whither thine only-begotten Son our Lord, the glorious Author of this coming solemnity, hath entered in: and whereunto it presseth forward by faith: may it attain by manner of life.

Let no Memorial of the Cross be made at this Matins nor from hence until the beginning of the History Deus omnium.

Or this Prayer. Almighty and everlasting God: defend us thy servants. [213].

Thenceforth let not the Prayer Pour forth, we beseech thee. be said until the Advent of the Lord but in its place whether at Compline of Saint Mary or at Procession is said the Prayer Grant, we beseech thee, O merciful God. XX.

Then is made a Memorial of All Saints with the Antiphon Thy saints, O Lord. 1451.

[Or the Ant. O ye saints and ye just.]\(^6\) 1452.

\(\text{V.} \) The voice of rejoicing and of exaltation. 1452.

Prayer. We beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to look upon our infirmities. [214].

Or this Prayer. Look, O Lord, upon our infirmities. as below after the History Deus omnium. [214].

[No Memorial of the Holy Cross shall be made at this Matins, nor henceforth until Deus omnium. and then when a Memorial is made of Saint Mary, or of All Saints at Vespers and at Matins, or indeed in the Commemoration of Blessed Mary.]\(^6^1\)

Chapter. (Acts iv. 34.)

As many as were owners of lands or houses, sold them, and brought the price of the things they sold, and laid it down before the feet of the apostles. And distribution was made to every one, according as he had need.

If however any Feast with Rulers of the Choir should happen on this Vigil let it not be deferred, but at Matins of the Feast only let a Memorial be made of the Vigil: nevertheless at First Vespers let nothing be made of the Memorial of the Vigil, however let the Mass of the Feast be said in Quire after Sext: and let the Mass of the Vigil be said at the Procession: where let a Station be made.
